GOVERNMENT HALTS ATTEMPTS TO LINK DAUGHERTY IN PLOT

Buckner Now Is Seeking to Prove Germans' Claims Invalid.

MOTION TO DISMISS THE JURY IS DENIED

Defense Had Held District Attorney's Court Actions Were Prejudicial.

New York, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The government today temporarily abandoned its attempt to show that Harry M. Daugherty and Thomas W. Miller conspired to defraud the United States and bent its efforts toward proving that the $7,000,000 claim they paid to Richard Merton, German agent of the Societe Suisse, was not valid. Previously, United States Attorney Buckner had said he would prove a conspiracy, whether the claim was valid or not.

Merton, the government's key witness, was bombarded with questions during the entire day—the fifth he had passed in the witness box—in an attempt by Mr. Buckner to prove that he knew the claims were false. Mr. Buckner also sought to show that Merton was coached by G. R. Williams, first assistant to Miller as alien property custodian, to construct his claims in a manner that would conceal facts that would have prohibited refund of the $7,000,000 of American Metal Co. shares seized under the trading with the enemy act.

"Rushing" Claim Is Charged.

The specific charge on which Daugherty and Miller are on trial is "conspiring to defraud the United States of their unbiased, unprejudiced and honest and intelligent services." Testimony was adduced to show that Merton paid the late John T. King, Republican national committeeman from Connecticut, fees amounting to $441,000 for "rushing" his claim through the alien property custodian's office and having it passed by Daugherty, then Attorney General.

Mr. Buckner conducted an exhaustive redirect examination of Merton on technical terms on the financing of the Societe Suisse and the Swiss Bank and their relations to the two German companies—the Metal Bank and the Metallgesellschaft—of which Merton was a dirtor.

All of the testimony Merton gave today is based upon a cross-examination by counsel for Miller, which in turn, was made up of evidence admitted under objections by counsel for Daugherty and Miller, and which will be stricken from the records unless Buckner gives it a connection with the conspiracy charge and makes it binding upon both defendants.

Daugherty Shows Little Interest.

Daugherty, hunched in his chair, apparently took little interest in the proceedings. Even when his counsel, Max D. Steuer, jumped to

Mann's Speedboat, Wild Cat 3d, Burned

Wild Cat 3d, a $20,000 speedboat owned by William T. Mann, 1333 Sixteenth street, was destroyed by fire yesterday, according to word received here from Manchester, Mass. The boat is believed to have been at its dock at the time of the fire.

Mr. Mann is a son of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Mann, of this city, and now is with his parents at their summer home at Manchester. His boat was for years a familiar sight to North Shore residents.

Man Pursuing Hat Is Killed by a Train

Special to The Washington Post.

New York, Sept. 14.—A straw hat caused the death of its owner this morning and resulted in a 40-minute tie-up of northbound traffic on the Second avenue elevated line during the peak of the rush hour.

A sudden gust of wind blew the hat from the head of an unidentified man on the platform of the Eighth Street station. Attempting to recover it, he fell in the path of a train and his body was crushed against the platform.

The rescue squad worked twenty minutes to extricate the body while train after train lined up behind the first one.

CITIZENS COUNCIL BACKS MIDCITY MARKET SITE

Advisory Group Adopts Report of Committee Which Surveyed Locations.

LAND COST CONSIDERED

The midcity market site at Fifth and K streets northwest was recommended as the most suitable of the several sites proposed for the new farmers' produce market by the citizens' advisory council, meeting in the District building last night.

Action was taken following a thorough investigation of all the proposed sites by a special committee of the advisory council, headed by W. I. Swanton. It was the report of this committee recommending the adoption of the midcity site that the council adopted by a unanimous vote last night.

In urging adoption of the report, Swanton pointed out in his report that the midcity site was located near the exact centers of population and was surrounded by street car lines of both companies, running to all parts of the city. The report also stated that the midcity site was surrounded by wide avenues, including New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts avenues and K street, which would furnish ample parking facilities.

These streets and avenues, it was pointed out, would afford convenient access to the site for the buying public and ready approach by the farmers from the nearby States.

Another reason for the choice of the committee was that the land in the vicinity is assessed at from 55 cents to $1.50 per square foot and that the comparatively inexpensive buildings in the neighborhood would make it possible to purchase the site at a comparatively low figure.

The report adopted by the council also recommended that the farmers' produce market, the commission houses and the retail market should all be located in one group.

Lack of good street car transportation facilities was one of the reasons given by the committee for

MARTIAL LAW FACES FLOGGERS IN FLORIDA

Governor Orders Sheriff to End Disorders; 63 Were Beaten, Is Charge.

Tallahassee, Fla., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Sheriff R. J. Hancock, of Putnam county, must put down the mob rule, declared to exist in his territory, or another sheriff will be sent to relieve him, and if the officer substituted is unable to cope with the situation, martial law will be declared, Gov. John W. Martin said today, following a conference here with the sheriff and Mayor A. S. Waynmer, of Palatka.

The conference was called to discuss the situation in Putnam county, where 63 flogging cases have been reported recently. Two of the victims were women.

Milk Price to Rise One Cent October 1

The price of milk will go up 1 cent in this city October 1, according to an announcement yesterday by John McGill, jr., secretary-treasurer of the Maryland & Virginia Milk Producers Association, Inc. This association supplies the local market with milk.

The increase, it was said, is necessitated by the usual fall shortage. Milk prices also will be increased in Baltimore and Philadelphia, according to information reaching the association.

EVANS, SAYING KLAN IS PERFECT, CALLS FORCES TO BATTLE

ACCEPTS REELECTION AMID GREAT TRIBUTE

Ku Klux Leader Warns Foreign Nations Not to Bother Mexico.

The Ku Klux Klan has reached a state of near perfection and from now on it will leave the defensive and pursue a "constructive" policy, Imperial Wizard Hiram W. Evans told the order's delegates in the Washington auditorium yesterday.

"We are ready after these many years to snatch the banner of Americanism from the ramparts we have so ably defended and go over the top against Romanism, alienism, bolshevism and anti-Americanism of all kinds," he declared.

Outlining a program for future klan activities, the imperial wizard said the fight for Federal controlled education would be carried on as would that for alien registration legislation. The klan will never tolerate the country's getting into any entangling alliances with European countries, he declared, nor neither would it tolerate the violation of the Monroe doctrine.

Oppose Marriage Stand.

The Catholic church doctrine regarding marriages outside the church was attacked, and the imperial wizard urged klansmen to "create a public mind" for legislation against it.

Dr. Evans' reelection last July by the grand dragons in Chicago was indorsed by the convention with a rousing demonstration. Incidentally, the klan head settled the controversy as to whether this meeting or that in July reelected him. He said he had withheld "acceptance" of the tender until it met with approval of the present meeting.

Immediately upon the conclusion of his address, there was a scene attending those in the national political conventions.

Ovation for Wizard.

Delegations bearing their placard designations marched down the aisles to the stage and lifting the imperial wizard on their shoulders carried him around the large hall. This demonstration subsided, an Alabama member moved that the selection of the grand dragon be "indorsed." It was seconded by a member from Texas, while the presiding klansman, laughingly, said he "thirded" it. Then the meeting indorsed it with a standing vote.

Whereupon, Dr. Evans said briefly:

"I accept," adding that inasmuch as he had been named and he had accepted: "I hereby announce that I expect to be the wizard of the Ku Klux Klan for the next four years." This was taken as a challenge to factionalism.

The imperial wizard introduced his wife and paid her tribute for her "loyalty" to him in his past trying days as head of the order. There have been times when his life was endangered because of his position, he said, but she had always told him to carry on. He kissed her, and Mrs. Evans, a pretty brunette, with eyes that

SHIP THAT SENT S O S HAS NOT BEEN FOUND

Rescue Vessel Finds No Sign of Craft at Position Given in Call.

New York, Sept. 14 (By A. P.) An S O S call from the British freighter Loyal Citizen, in the vicinity of Bermuda, was picked up this afternoon by the Independent Wireless Telegraph station.

The ship left Norfolk, September 5, for Cardiff, Wales. The location given in the S O S call was latitude 31.18 north and longitude 67 west. The Loyal Citizen is of 4,007 tons gross, which indicates it has a crew of about 30 men.

A later wireless received from the ship said that hold No. 3 was full of water and that the rail was awash. The crew was preparing to put out in life boats.

The steamship Clair relayed to the Independent station a message it had picked up from the steamer Sirte, which read:

"Arrived at position but nothing in sight. Unable to raise Loyal Citizen by radio."

CANADIAN PREMIER AND 5 OF MINISTRY LOSE; LIBERALS GAIN

Conservatives Hold 83 Seats to 106 for Opponents.

KING, FORMER PRIME MINISTER, REELECTED

Stevens, Foremost Figure in Customs Inquiry, Regains His Seat.

Ottawa, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Premier Arthur Meighen has been beaten for reelection in his own constituency of Portage La Prairie, Manitoba.

The standing of the parties on the returns received late tonight is: Liberals, 106; conservatives, 83; progressives, 7; liberal-progressives, 11; united farmers of Alberta, 7; labor, 3; independents, 2; doubtful, 26.

With more than three-fourths of the constituencies either conceded or reporting final figures, the swing to the liberal side in the general elections for parliament today becomes more pronounced. If the present trend continues the liberals should have the larger group in the next house.

Cabinet Members Beaten.

Five members of the Meighen cabinet have been defeated. They are E. L. Patnaude, minister of justice; Donald Sutherland, minister without portfolio; Andre Fauteux, solicitor general, Dr. E. T. Paquet, minister of health, and Dr. Raymond Morand, director without portfolio.

H. H. Stevens, minister of customs and foremost figure in the customs inquiry, was reelected in Vancouver.

Sir George Perley, secretary of state, was reelected.

Premier Meighen himself, on the returns of about half of the polls, was several hundred votes behind his liberal opponent in Manitoba.

Of the four ministers defeated three went under in the province of Quebec. In Prince Edward island, a liberal gain brings back to parliament K. J. E. Sinclair, who was a member without portfolio of the king government. In the last elections, along with eight other members of the king government, he was defeated.

Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—W. L. Mackenzie King, former prime minister and leader of the liberal party, has been reelected in Prince Albert.

Riot in Manitoba.

Montreal, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Police reserves were called to a polling booth in the St. Antonine division of Montreal tonight, after a ballot box had been thrown into the street during the course of a fight in the booth. The fight developed into a mild riot.

GROESBECK TRAILS IN MICHIGAN FIGHT

Governor Is Almost 100,000 Votes Behind for G. O. P. Renomination.

Detroit, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Col. Fred W. Green's lead over Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck for the Republican gubernatorial nomination was approaching the 100,000 mark as returns from nearly half the State were tabulated tonight. The figures from 1,367 out of 2,935 precincts in the State were: Green, 193,303; Groesbeck, 94,774.

In the four-cornered contest for the Republican lieutenant governorship, returns from 111 precincts gave: Dickinson, 6,238; Welsh, 3,270; Fred B. Wells, 2,433; Oscar Riopell, 1,093.

In the only contest for a congressional seat, in the Sixth district, Grant M. Hudson (Rep.), incumbent and avowed dry, had a slight margin over J. Bradford Pengally, wet.

Liner 1,000 Feet Long Being Contemplated

Glasgow, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The possibility that an ocean liner 1,000 feet long may be built here is indicated in inquiries received by Clyde Shipbuilders.

The inquiries, believed to be from the Cunard line, were as to the feasibility of constructing and operating such a ship, which would be the longest in the world.

French Insult War Graves Of Americans, Says Senator

"To Hell With America" Chalked on Soldiers' Head Crosses, Caraway Declares—Demands Return of Bodies to United States.

Senator T. H. Caraway, of Arkansas, Democrat, who has been in Geneva to attend the meeting of the Interparliamentary union, and who spent much time in France and England while he was abroad, declared on his return to Washington yesterday that he favored removal of the bodies of the American soldier dead from France and their return to the United States. Insults are being written over the graves of the dead veterans, he declares.

"I wish Congress," said Senator Caraway, "would provide the appropriations to bring home the bodies of the 30,000 American soldier dead that sleep in France. Congress should enact such legislation. They are writing insulting things on the little white crosses over the graves of the American dead who gave their lives that France might live."

Asked what sort of expressions were written on these crosses, Senator Caraway replied:

"'To hell with America' and vulgar expressions of every character."

Senator Caraway declared France was trying to make friends with Germany and that she had turned her hatred against America and almost to an equal extent against England. On the other hand, he said, he did not find feeling in England against the United States. He praised the British people and declared that in the face of serious industrial and economic difficulties they are "dead game sports."

"France undoubtedly loves the German more than the American or the Englishman," said Senator Caraway. "Carrying on a campaign against her former friends is the principal occupation of her statesmen."

He predicted, however, that France is drifting into financial trouble.

"France has her Gethsemane ahead of her," he declared, referring to the low ebb of the franc and unwillingness of the people to be taxed.

While Senator Caraway said he had suffered no indignity in France, he knew of some Americans who had.

"There is an arrogant attitude there," he said. "You can feel it in the air."

Senator Caraway discussed the debt situation, especially the

Smith, Pro-Court Senator, Winner in South Carolina

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Senator E. D. Smith, who voted for American participation in the world court, had apparently defeated Edgar A. Brown, who criticized him for that vote, in returns tabulated at midnight from today's run-off Democratic primary. Nomination is equivalent to election.

With an estimated 10,000 votes yet to be accounted for, the standing of the candidates was: Brown, 73,604; Smith, 78,906.

John G. Richards, member of the railroad commission, won a decisive victory over Ira C. Blackwood, of Spartanburg, for the gubernatorial nomination. Blackwood, who made his campaign on a platform of opposition to the indirect taxes on soft drinks and other so-called nonessentials, while advocating general reform of the State's taxation system, conceded defeat early tonight. Richards' stressed law enforcement and economy in his campaign.

Representative Hampton P. Fulmer was renominated to Congress from the Seventh district over Ernest M. Dupre, Columbia business man, by about 1,500 votes.

Means Is Behind Klan Foe For Colorado Senatorship

Denver, Colo., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Charles W. Waterman, anti-klan candidate and counsel for the President's oil board, led Senator Rice W. Means for the Republican senatorial nomination in first returns from today's primary.

The vote in 33 precincts out of 1,591 was: Waterman, 895; Means, 703; Luzford, 94.

Thirty-nine precincts for the Republican gubernatorial nomination gave O. H. Shoup 740; John F. Vivian, klan candidate, 1,216; Carl S. Milliken, secretary of State, 309.

In the Democratic gubernatorial race, 42 precincts gave William H. Adams 815, Judge Samuel W. Johnson 386.

Former Gov. W. E. Sweet had a lead for the Democratic nomination for the senatorship. Returns from 43 precincts give: Sweet, 549; Paul Prosser, 422; Frank J. Hayes, 158.

Broussard Leads by 2,072; Spearing Is Renominated

New Orleans, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—United States Senator Edwin S. Broussard was 2,072 votes ahead of former Gov. Jared Y. Sanders in the race for Democratic nomination for United States Senator in today's primary with the vote reported from 778 out of the 1,313 precincts in the State. The vote was Broussard 63,922; Sanders 61,850.

Seven Representatives, James O'Connor, W. P. Martin, J. N. Sandlin, R. J. Wilson, Bolivar Kemp, Ladislas Lazaro and J. B. Aswell were renominated without opposition.

Representative Zach Spearing was renominated by the Democrats in the second Louisiana district by a vote exceeding the combined vote of his three opponents, almost complete unofficial reports from the district indicated tonight. The vote in 120 outof 155 precincts in the district gave Spearing 15,049; Vanburen Harris, 7,250; R. S. Stearns, 2,395; Mrs. F. I. Williams, 675.

SMITH AND WAGNER TO RUN IN NEW YORK

Governor Seeks Reelection; Justice Opposes Senator Wadsworth.

Special to The Washington Post.

New York, Sept. 14.—Alfred E. Smith has definitely decided to respond to the call of the Democratic party and become, for the fifth time, its candidate for governor. All doubt on that question was removed today when word came from Albany that speeches placing him in nomination already were being prepared.

Edwin Corning, chairman of the Democratic State committee, will be the governor's running mate as candidate for lieutenant governor.

Justice Robert F. Wagner also has made it clear that if the party wants him, which it does, to run for United States senator against Senator James W. Wadsworth, Republican, he, too will answer the call.

GALLIVAN APPEARS SAFE IN BAY STATE

Representative Ahead; Reading Leads for the Attorney Generalship.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—A close race for the Republican nomination for attorney general marked the primaries today. The vote of 618 precincts out of 1,576 in the State gave: Elijah Adlow, 23,585; Alexander Lincoln, 16,601; Arthur K. Reading, 25,204.

Representative James A. Gallivan, Democrat, in the Twelfth district, appeared assured of renomination over John W. McCormack in returns from the greater part of the district. Other congressional districts were slow in reporting.

United States Senator William M. Butler and Gov. Alvan T. Fuller (Republican), were renominated without opposition. Former Senator David I. Walsh was unopposed for the Democratic nomination for senator and William A. Gaston for the Democratic nomination for governor.

HILL-WELLER VOTE CLOSE IN MARYLAND; ZIHLMAN RENAMED

Representative's Lead Is Cut of 841 in G. O. P. Senate Contest.

GOV. RITCHIE SWEEPS DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY

Senator Apparently Carries 7 Counties, but Loses in Baltimore City.

Senator Overton E. Weller and Representative John Philip Hill were running a close race in Maryland's Republican senatorial primary on the face of returns received last night. At a late hour, Hill's earlier lead had been cut to 841 votes. At that time returns from more than one-third of the State's 1,184 precincts gave Hill 13,191 and Weller 12,350 votes.

Gov. Albert C. Ritchie was overwhelmingly renominated for a fourth term on the Democratic ticket over his opponent, William Milne Maloy

Representative Frederick N. Zihlman, chairman of the House District committee, had on the face of early returns, carried every county in the Sixth congressional district over his opponent, George Louis Eppler.

Upset in Dorchester.

In Baltimore city, Hill had apparently carried four of the six legislative districts, with one in doubt and another believed to be safely in the Weller column. Weller apparently carried Montgomery, Baltimore, Charles, Kent, Caroline, Carroll and Dorchester, all of which, with the exception of Dorchester, had been given to him in preprimary analysis.

Alleghany county, one of the sanguinary battlegrounds of the opposing forces, in first returns gave Hill 325 votes in 8 of the 52 precincts and Weller 344. Hill territory, however, had begun to come in, and there were some indications that Hill would carry that county.

The loss of Dorchester county was an upset to the Hill managers, they having counted on former United States Senator Jackson to deliver it to them.

Hill Ahead in Wicomico.

Hill was running well ahead in Wicomico county, and he apparently carried Cecil county.

There was a close fight on in Prince Georges county, upon which the Weller forces had strongly counted.

In the First congressional district Representative T. Alan Goldsborough, Democratic incumbent, was running well ahead of his opponent, Franklin Upshur.

One hundred and ninety precincts gave for the Republican nomination for governor: Marion A. Humphreys, Hill candidate, 7,690; Addison E. Mullikin, Weller candidate, 8,246.

In the Third congressional district, on the Republican ticket, John McGinity, Hill candidate, had a small lead over the Weller candidate, William Hettleman. William F. Jacobs had apparently been nominated on the Democratic ticket.

Charles county gave Gov. Ritchie 368 votes and Maloy 56.

In the combined 212 precincts, Baltimore city and Charles county, Hill's gubernatorial candidate, Humphreys received 3,623 and Mullikin received 3,470 votes.

In 225 precincts, Gov. Ritchie had 12,973 and Maloy had 1,674.

In the First legislative district of Baltimore, John H. Bouse, seeking the Democratic nomination for the State senate, received 66 votes in the first precinct to report, against 17 for William I. Norris.

Weller in Montgomery.

Weller was running easily ahead of Hill in Montgomery county with 9 precincts out of 21 giving him 867 votes as against 289 for Hill. These same precincts gave Mullikin 862 and Humphreys 333.

Returns were extremely slow coming from the counties and none had come from Allegany and Frederick counties, debatable territories for the Weller and Hill forces.

The returns in Baltimore city showed a steady gain on the part of Weller, a lead of 500 for Hill in the first returns being appreciably cut down. But they did not include the two districts which had been considered Hill strongholds, the district which he now represents in Congress for one.

Indications pointed to a spotty vote. As the time for closing the polls approached, some of the counties had polled unusually heavy

Judge Cobb Resigns From Colored Body

Judge James A. Cobb, of the municipal court, resigned his position as head of the legal bureau of the local branch of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People, at a meeting of the executive board held at the association headquarters, 1019 U street northwest, last night. Sylvester L. McLaurin, president of the Colored Bar Association of the District of Columbia, succeeded him as director of the bureau.

While active in interest of the Association for Advancement of Colored People, Judge Cobb carried several cases of national import to the courts, principal among which was the Bulkeley-Curtis segregation case. The judge is said to have found his present duties incompatible with those of the directorship of the legal bureau of the association.

Weddings, Birthday Party And Fist Fight in Court

Police Tribunal Scene of Varied Activities as Judge Mattingly Celebrates His Forty-second Year. Lawyer and Probation Officer Clash.

Two weddings, a birthday party and a fist fight broke the monotony of every-day police court business yesterday. Judge Robert E. Mattingly, municipal court justice, sitting in police court, celebrated his forty-second birthday anniversary yesterday by giving a party to the prisoners and court attaches at court.

The judge was the recipient of a large basket of gladioli, asters and dahlias presented by Ralph Given, senior assistant district attorney at police court, and his associates. The flowers were presented in the judge's chambers in the presence of all the police court officials. Judge Mattingly made a speech of acceptance.

Judge Mattingly told of when he was a boy of 6 and weighted down by long curly hair and how he went to the barber and had the hair cut off by the same barber who shaved King Edward, when he was Prince of Wales and visiting in Washington.

Two couples from out of town were married by the judge in the afternoon. They were George Wojcik, 35, and Carrie Dalka, 25, both of Baltimore, Md., and Harry Sage and Mary Lowate, both of Pleasantville, N. J. Richard Hughes, court bailiff, was best man at both weddings.

The fist fight took place in the United States branch while the court was in recess. G. G. Moore, a lawyer, was called down by United States Marshall Burke for talking to prisoners in the dock. Moore is said to have made some disparaging remark about Burke. Probation Officer Robert E. L. Smith told him to "shut up." Moore then struck Smith in the jaw with his fist. The fist fight followed. United States Marshall Edward Sackey separated the combatants.

Judge Gus A. Schuldt cited Moore for contempt of court and fined him $20 or 48 hours in jail. Moore said that he didn't have $20 nor a friend who had. Bertrand Emerson, jr., another lawyer, paid the fine for Moore.

The automobile is owned by Virgie Burner, 5225 Fourth street northwest, police said.

Tosh told the police that two hours after he took Burner's automobile from Thirteenth and F streets northwest, he visited the District building and obtained a registration card and license tags for the machine, according to Detective Jett. He gave a fictitious name when he got them, Tosh said. Tosh will be arraigned in police court today.

KINNIE WAGNER TRIAL BEGUN IN MISSISSIPPI

Change of Venue Is Asked by Attorneys Appointed to Defend Youth.

Leakesville, Miss., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—A plea for a change of venue was made by attorneys for Kinnie Wagner here today at the opening of his trial at a special term of court for the alleged murder of Deputy Sheriff Murdock McIntosh, of Green county, in December, 1925. Attorneys for Wagner contended that he could not receive a fair trial in Green county. A plea of not guilty was entered.

District Attorney Martin Miller, of Meridian, will conduct the prosecution, assisted by T. R. Vandy, of Kingsport, Tenn., and E. M. Breland, of Leakesville. The city postoffice yesterday made formal demand on the District commissioners for a refund of $3,637.38, gasoline tax on 181,869 gallons of the fuel purchased during the fiscal year ended June 30. This action followed an opinion by Comptroller General McCarl last month that the gasoline bought by the government was exempt from District tax.

The demand was referred to Maj. Daniel J. Donovan, District auditor, for report. He is expected to follow the view of Corporation Counsel Francis H. Stephens that the District has no appropriation out of which to make the refund.

Learners' Permit Rule Is Urged After Fatality

Persons may be forbidden hereafter to learn to drive automobiles in the District without taking out "learners' permits," as an aftermath of the accident Saturday in which a car driven by Mme. Abdullah Entezen killed a man in a collision.

Director of Traffic M. O. Eldridge submitted a new regulation to the commissioners containing such a provision, together with another rule forbidding persons to accept compensation for teaching others to drive unless the instructors be licensed as such by the traffic department.

The commissioners deferred action on the two newly proposed rules as they did on the half dozen or more other amendments to the traffic code that are pending.

GYPSIES BEAT STORK IN RACE TO HOSPITAL

Band Rejoices After Auto Enables Mother to Win by Five Minutes.

The stork and a tribe of gypsies engaged in a race from the home of Mrs. Nicola Poppula, 40 years old, 1133 Seventh street northwest, to the Stanton Park hospital last night. The stork lost, but only by a narrow margin.

The Poppula family was entertaining a number of their fellow tribesmen in their home when Mrs. Poppula became ill. Festivities were stopped and Mrs. Poppula was put in an automobile. The race with the stork began.

Five minutes after Mrs. Poppula arrived at the hospital a 7-pound boy was born to her. Approximately 25 of the gypsy band, who had followed the automobile to the hospital, rejoiced in front of the hospital. Dr. Joseph Rogers, head of the hospital, said the mother and baby were doing nicely.

SUIT TO TEST POWER OF TRAFFIC DIRECTOR

Japanese Driver Appeals to Court to Prevent Eldridge Revocation of Permit.

Genniske Higashi, a Japanese, yesterday filed suit in the District supreme court to prevent Traffic Director Eldridge from revoking his operator's permit.

Higashi, in declaring the action of Mr. Eldridge in suspending his license to be unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, claims that the act which gives the traffic director such powers is unconstitutional. Attorney Milton S. Barrett, appearing for Higashi, had previously filed a brief with Mr. Eldridge stating that the act of Congress authorizing him to suspend permits is unconstitutional.

The Japanese was arrested, August 18, on a charge of driving while intoxicated. Traffic Director Eldridge summoned Higashi to appear September 9 to show cause why his permit should not be suspended. Higashi refused to submit to Eldridge's jurisdiction and the permit was suspended.

COOLIDGE OPPOSES FURTHER TAX CUTS AT PRESENT TIME

Margin Between U. S. Income and Expenditures Is Too Slim, He Holds.

SEES ACTUAL DEFICIT THROUGH PUBLIC DEBT

Report of Eddy Commission Not to Change Stand on Soviet Russia.

Paul Smiths, N. Y., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—President Coolidge is opposed to a reduction of $560,000,000 in Federal taxes at the coming short session of Congress as urged by Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, considering such a step unwarranted by present conditions.

With the government running on its present margin between expenses and income, the President believes any such reduction in the immediate future might require an extensive and perhaps inadvisable readjustment of arrangements for disposing of the huge national public debt. At the same time he favors reduction of taxes as rapidly as they can be brought down. He also favors paying off the public debt as speedily as possible consistent with wise public financing.

Moreover, the President is not certain that the country demands an extensive tax reduction at this time. Certainly, he holds, those who are demanding cancellation of the foreign debts to this country would not favor it, as he believes both can not go together. As for proposals that the foreign debts be canceled and taxes reduced, it was said in behalf of Mr. Coolidge today that they do not harmonize.

Present Margin Too Small.

The President has from the first, it was asserted, stood for a program of reducing taxes and obtaining tax reform, under which it was expected the government would have a larger income by reason of an increase in business under reduced rates of taxation. He feels a further test should be given the present law before a further tax reduction is attempted. It would be especially unwise, in his opinion, to reduce taxes now, when business is good, only to be forced to increase them when and if a business depression comes. Such an increase, it was declared, would operate to retard a recovery of business from the depression.

At present, it was pointed out, there is only a slight margin between government income and expenses, and when there is taken into consideration the maturing obligations the Treasury is obliged to meet on account of the public debt that slight margin is a deficit.

While the Treasury for the first time, it was added, was able to meet those maturing obligations last June without borrowing, it has been forced to borrow for meeting the September 15 public debt maturities. The interest charges alone on the public debt are more than $800,000,000 a year, and, it was said, and considerable reduction in taxes at present probably would require a substantial lessening in the allotments to the sinking fund that might react upon bonds issued to the public in a way to damage public credit.

Taxes can be reduced, it was said, in general if the chief executive can keep expenses down. That the President is attempting to do, it was added, while he favors reducing taxes as rapidly as can be done in a way to permit a fair margin for taking care of any losses in government income that might be brought about by a shrinkage in private business.

The business men's conference called among twelve Middle Western States to meet at St. Paul October 2, to discuss farm relief should be quite helpful in the opinion of President Coolidge.

Although he is not familiar with the details of the conference Mr. Coolidge feels that any meeting of business men to aid the farmer is

APRIL GRAND JURY RECALLED TO HEAR HALL-MILLS CASE

Change in Program Is Laid to Prosecutor Simpson, Who Keeps Silence.

30 BLANK SUBPENAS OBTAINED FROM CLERK

Another Couple in Lane at Time of the Murders Are Being Questioned.

Special to The Washington Post.

Somerville, N. J., Sept. 14.—A bombshell of surprise was exploded in the Hall-Mills murder inquiry late today when the April term Somerset county grand jury was summoned to convene in Somerville tomorrow morning. This swift move was attributed to Senator Alexander Simpson, special prosecutor, but up to a late hour tonight Simpson remained secluded in his Jersey City office, refusing either to confirm or deny his part in it.

Francis L. Bergen, prosecutor of Somerset county, let the cat out of the bag, however, when he told reporters who asked him the reason for summoning the grand jury:

"You'll have to see Senator Simpson. He is the one to do the talking."

30 Blank Subpenas.

Since Simpson has no concern with any Somerset county matter save the Hall-Mills case, Bergen's remark was construed as verifying the report that the evidence in the case is going to be presented to the April term body.

It was also learned that 30 blank subpenas for grand jury witnesses were obtained from the Somerset county clerk by some one representing the Hall-Mills prosecution.

At the outset of the reopened inquiry into the four-year old murder of the Rev. Edward W. Hall and his choir singer sweetheart, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, Simpson declared that he would hold his evidence until the September term grand jury is sworn in. That takes place next Tuesday, at which time the April term body automatically goes out of existence.

September Panel Drawn.

A panel of 35, from which the 23 September grand jurors are to be chosen was drawn last Friday.

It developed that many persons on the list were office holders, adherents of Senator Clarence Case, county Republican leader and one of the attorneys for the defense, or had close social and financial affiliations with the family of Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of the slain clergyman. It is believed that this situation caused Simpson to engineer the sudden shift in plans which will throw the case before the April grand jury tomorrow.

Two New Witnesses.

Jersey City, N. J., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Corroboration of three major State's witnesses in the Hall-Mills murder case is expected from two new witnesses, a man and a woman who kept a rendezvous in De Russey's lane, near the spot where the Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills were slain four years ago tonight, Special Prosecutor Simpson announced.

He said the witnesses would be questioned by his investigators at Somerville.

Mrs. Jane Gibson, "pig woman," has been instrumental through her testimony, in laying murder charges against Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of the rector; Willie Stevens, her brother, and Henry Carpender, her cousin. Mrs. Gibson, Ralph Gorsline and Miss Catherine Rastall are the three State witnesses who said they heard shots and screams near the murder scene.

Senator Simpson refused to identify his new witnesses.

Man Is Older Than Ape, Berlin Scientist Holds

Berlin, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The ape is descended from man and not man from the ape, according to Prof. Max Westenhofer, custodian of the pathological museum of the Berlin university.

He points out that chimpanzee cubs resemble human beings much more than do their parents.

He says that certain human inner organs evidence that man's ancestors lived for a time in water. These peculiar characteristics are missing in apes, which he declares "shows that the ape represents the subsequent development and proves that man is the older form of mamal."

Prof. Westenhofer elucidated this theory before the anthropological congress now at session in Salsburg.

Fast Train Wrecked By Removing Spikes

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The wreck of the Missouri Pacific Sunshine Special, en route from New Orleans to St. Louis, which cost the life of George Bushey, Little Rock engineer, and severely injured H. J. Munda, of Little Rock, fireman, was deliberately executed, officials announced today after an investigation of the scene near McGehee, Ark.

Rail Officials said that rail fastenings had been moved and spikes pulled, causing one of the rails to turn under the engine. A spike puller and wrench were found beside the roadbed.

Bloodhounds in charge of officers were sent to the scene this morning.

NEW YORK-PARIS FLIGHT IS DELAYED BY WEATHER

Lieut. Curtin Chosen to Take Place of Lieut Snody, Who Has Become Ill.

HOPED TO START TODAY

New York, Sept. 14 (By A. P.). Weather reports of impending storms off the Grand Banks caused Capt. Rene Fonck, French ace, late tonight to postpone the hop-off for his attempted nonstop flight to Paris. Everything had been in readiness for taking off from Roosevelt field early tomorrow. No new date was set.

Lieut. Lawrence W. Curtin, U. S. N., bureau of aeronautics, will succeed Lieut. Allan P. Snody, U. S. N., as American pilot on the coming transatlantic flight. Following word of the illness at New York of Lieut. Snody, who was to pilot the Sikorsky plane with Capt. Rene Fonck, French aviator, Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, who returned from the west coast yesterday, granted a month's leave to Lieut. Curtin to take Lieut. Snody's place, and he left for New York to join Capt. Fonck's crew.

Lieut. Curtin, an experienced flier and qualified naval aviator, is an expert in aerial navigation. In 1924 and 1925, he was stationed under the late Commander John Rodgers, at the naval air station at Pearl Harbor, and in August 1925, went to San Diego, Calif., to assist in preparing for the West Coast-Hawaiian flight.

When Commander Rodgers came to Washington as assistant chief of the bureau of aeronautics, Lieut. Curtin followed as his aid, and continued a study of aerial navigation, combining it with experimental flying in connection with air navigation over land and water. He afterward became aid to Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the bureau.

Partly because of his extensive knowledge of aerial navigation, he was assigned recently as pilot of one of the PN-10 planes which are being assembled at Philadelphia for the coming west coast flight.

Lieut. Curtin was born in Beardstown, Ill., in 1898, and was graduated from Annapolis in 1919. His local address is 1255 New Hampshire avenue.

BRITISH OFFICIALS DENY MASSACRE OF CHINESE

Fighting on Upper Yangtze Serious; English Tars Are Led Into a Trap.

HAND-TO-HAND BATTLE

London, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Reports from China printed here today describe fierce fighting on September 5 between the British punitive forces and the Chinese, some dispatches reporting 2,000 Chinese casualties. The officials here say that figure is "very greatly exaggerated," though it is admitted the affray was serious.

The encounter was at a port on the upper Yangtze river, between Gen. Yang-Sen's legionnaires and a small British naval force. It was much like an eighteenth century naval battle staged for the movies, with hand-to-hand fighting. The British were greatly outnumbered, but effected a dramatic release of the British officers held prisoner aboard merchantmen which had been seized by the Chinese and crowded to the rails with guards.

Everything appeared quiet as the Kiawo, manned by a British naval force, steamed alongside the captured Wanhsien. All that was to be seen on the Wanhsien's decks were groups of Chinese squatting about in a seemingly peaceful manner. But as soon as the British boarding party went aboard the ship became alive with riflemen, and machine guns poured a leaden hail into the British.

Commander Darley, who was leading the boarding party, with a pistol in each hand and Lieut. Higgins were killed instantly. It was estimated that 400 Chinese lined the rails of the Wanhsien and poured a deadly fire into the Kiawo, which was promptly returned.

While desperate fighting was going on on the lower decks a boarding party swarmed aboard the captured steamer and rescued the British officers who had barricaded themselves in the officers' quarters of the vessel. The fighting continued for an hour after that, when the British ship Kiawo drew off.

EVANGELIST ADMITS PAYMENT OF MONEY TO CARMEL WOMAN

Gave Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff Money to Prove She Was Not in Cottage.

"LED INTO A TRAP," SAYS TEMPLE HEAD

"Completely Fooled, Despite Warning of Lawyers," Mrs. McPherson Adds.

Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, today admitted that she had paid money to Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Sielaff in an effort to obtain evidence to disprove reports that she occupied a cottage at Carmel, Calif., with a man identified as Kenneth G. Ormiston, following her alleged kidnaping last May.

The evangelist's statement was in reply to charges by Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff that her story that a "Miss X" and not Mrs. McPherson occupied the cottage was a hoax engineered by Mrs. McPherson.

"Were Fooled," She Says.

Mrs. McPherson said that "considerable money" had been given Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff to carry on her investigation, and added "we will have to acknowledge frankly that we were utterly fooled."

The evangelist declared Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff led her into a trap, despite the warnings of her attorney, by assertions that she could produce positive proof that it was she (Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff) who occupied the cottage with Omiston, former radio operator at the McPherson temple.

Following the arrest of Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff several days ago on bad check charges, Mrs. McPherson asserted messages were received at her temple asking that $3,000 be sent at once.

Severed Relations.

"The final word, which we took to be a blackmail threat, was that unless we complied, it would probably be disastrous for us within a few hours," Mrs. McPherson declared. Upon the advice of her attorney she thereupon severad all relations with Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff, she added.

After her arrest, Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff gave a statement to authorities declaring that the evangelist employed her to perpetuate the "Carmel hoax."

GERMAN SAVANT'S WILL IS FORGED BY COUNTESS

Widow of Prof. Schnabel, in Court, Confesses That She Imitated Writing.

DEVISED ESTATE TO HER

Potsdam, Germany, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Countess Hessolda Schnabel, widow of Prof. Schnabel, of the Robert Koch Institute for Infectious Diseases, Berlin, has caused Potsdam's latest society scandal by admitting the forgery of her husband's will whereby his entire fortune was left to her.

The countess was born in St. Louis, Mo., August 9, 1885, the daughter of Count Hesso von Leiningen-Westerburg, scion of one of the oldest noble families in Germany, who emigrated to America in the early '80s, marrying Margarete Meyer, of St. Louis, in October, 1884.

Prof. Schnabel met the Countess Hessolda in the world war when he was stationed at a Vienna hospital, where she served as a nurse. The marriage, which took place in 1923, was unhappy, and the wife was not present at the husband's deathbed in 1924.

After the funeral, to the surprise of the professor's mother and sister, to whom he was touchingly devoted, the countess produced a will purporting to leave the large estate entirely to her.

The will was contested, and at the hearing an aged housekeeper and confidante of the countess confessed that the latter had practiced for some time imitating her husband's handwriting.

The countess then also confessed. She has not been arrested, thus far, however, giving her word that she would not leave her country estate.

COX SEES COOLIDGE BEATEN BY FARMERS

May Not Be Nominated if Discontent Continues, Says Ohio Man.

New York, Sept. 14 (By A. P.). Former Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate in 1920, returning from Europe today on the Majestic, expressed the opinion that "if the agricultural discontent continues" President Coolidge will not "even be nominated."

Frank O. Lowden would receive the Republican presidential nomination in that event, he predicted.

Gov. Smith of New York was termed by Mr. Cox "a good chap anywhere you put him," but said Ohio's support of Smith for the Democratic presidential nomination hinged on whether former Senator Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio, would be a candidate.

"As for prohibition, I doubt very much whether prohibition will be a lasting institution," said Mr. Cox. He predicted that Congress would be Democratic this year and that the Senate would be even more Democratic than the House.

LOCARNO TREATIES BECOME EFFECTIVE; NEW ERA IS HAILED

German Foreign Minister Says Policy of Mistrust Has Been Ended.

DISTRIBUTION OF SEATS IN COUNCIL IS DISPUTED

Latin-American Powers' Role in World Affairs Causes New Controversy.

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Another historic step in European reconciliation was taken today with the deposit with the secretariat of the League of Nations of the ratifications of the Locarno treaties of security and arbitration. This was followed by an optimistic statement by Gustav Stresemann, the German foreign minister, to the British correspondants that the Locarno accords, now officially merged with the league, have completely changed the political situation in Europe.

"It is," he declared, "the end of the policy of mistrust and the birth of an era of collaboration."

In the opinion of Dr. Stresemann, the big difficulty was in winning over German public opinion to the ideas voiced at Locarno, and he now was convinced that a big majority of his people sincerely believed in the Locarno pacts.

No French-German Meeting.

Contrary to expectations, beyond the meeting for the Locarno ratifications, Dr. Stresemann and M. Briand held no conference today, the French foreign minister resting while the reich foreign minister attended a somewhat listless afternoon session of the assembly.

At this session the Bulgarian representative praised the league's pacifying powers as exemplified by the settlement of the Greco-Bulgar frontier incident of the autumn of 1925, and Dr. Loudon expressed Holland's pleasure at seeing the nation once ruled over by Emperor William, now a resident of Doorn, a member of the League of Nations definitely committed to seek the pathways of peace. Naturally, Dr. Loudon made no allusion to the former kaiser's presence in Holland, but his voicing fervid thanksgiving that Germany was at last in the fold caused chuckles among the allied auditors.

Differences Over Council Seats.

Conflicting views of the world role to be played by Latin America featured this morning's meeting of the assembly juridical commission charged with drafting a scheme for reorganization of the league council.

Senor Ferrara of Cuba and Senor Guani of Uruguay were the chief protagonists. The former, while voicing doubts as to the advisability of enlarging the council, said that, since three seats were to be accorded to Latin America, Europe should take Latin-American opinion into account and not make any one state subject to reelection, in the form proposed. He asked that the European states show the same spirit of objectivity as regards the Latin Americans as they showed regarding Europe.

Senor Quesada of Chile supported the Cuban spokesman, saying the question of reelegibility for a council seat did not arise for the Latin-American states, as they formed one economic whole, and any state could represent their aspirations as well as another.

Should Not Be World Apart.

Upon this, Senor Guani of Uruguay protested that it was not desirable that Latin America be a world apart, and that its states should not claim exemption from the regular rule of the League of Nations.

He pointed out that a number of Latin-American states were not participating in the league activities, and that care must be used in speaking in their behalf. He emphasized, however, that no political or geographical entity, no matter how strong, should have special privileges within the league, and criticized the Latin-American methods of caucussing to decide which state should be candidates for council representation.

The commission by a vote of 19 to 15 decided that blank ballots in the vote for council members would be counted as abstentions and not among the number voting. This is a victory for the French, who feared Poland might thus be blocked in securing the two-third vote necessary to make her reeligible to a seat.

The Irish Free State delegation to the assembly let it be known today that the Free State would be a candidate for a nonpermanent seat in the council. If Canada was also a candidate, however, the Irish delegates said, the Free State would withdraw its candidacy and support her.

BREAD-WATER SENTENCE REDUCED BY PHYSICIAN

Nebraska Dry Law Prisoner Undernourished, Says County Doctor.

ANOTHER IS COMPLAINING

Tekamah, Nebr., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—County Physician H. W. Benson today reduced the bread and water sentence of Roy Carson, 35-year-old farmer liquor law violator by ten days when he found on physical examination that Carson, who is on his seventh day's diet, in the Burt county jail, was undernourished and that continuance of the diet was inadvisable.

The original sentence imposed on Carson by County Judge Orville Chatt was 60 days in jail with the first and last 20 days to be served on bread and water.

Upon complaint of another bread-and-water prisoner, Thomas Nelson, Craig farmer, that he was ill, "probably from eating too much raisin bread Sunday," County Physician Benson gave him a physical examination to determine his ability to withstand the diet. Nelson, who is 50 years old, is on his fourth day of diet and is held in the same cell as Carson. The report on Nelson's condition is not expected for several days.

Although today's order was greeted with some relief by Carson, his attorney, R. C. Hunter, who has been hired by J. H. Chatt, brother of the judge who passed the sentence, said he would go ahead with his application for a temporary order restraining Burt county authorities and the State of Nebraska from keeping Carson in jail on the bread-and-water diet. The hearing on the application is set for tomorrow morning before District Judge Fitzgerald. The case of Max Saltzman, 16, who was convicted of drunkenness and given a bread-and-water sentence, was taken before Gov. McMullen, who said he felt the courts were open to Saltzman if he cared to make an appeal.

No action has yet been taken on Fred S. Dirks, who has been sentenced to serve 60 days in the county pail at Harlington on an alternate 10 days bread-and-water sentence for liquor-law violation.

Hartington, Nebr., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Obviously unconcerned about legal maneuvers which are being made to liberate three men at Tekamah from bread and water sentences on liquor charges, Judge Wilbur Bryant sentenced Fred S. Dirks to 60 days in jail, the first and alternate ten days of which must be on bread and water on his plea of guilty to a charge of transporting liquor.

"I've been sentencing them that way for fourteen years and no one has kicked about it," Judge Bryant said yesterday after sentencing Dirks. He asserted, however, that he thought ten days at a time on bread and water was sufficient.

Gen. Ludendorff Weds Mathilda Von Kemnitz

Munich, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Gen. Erich Ludendorff, who was quartermaster general of the German imperial army in the world war, at noon today married Frau Dr. Mathilde von Kemnitz. The bride, who was mentioned by the first Frau Ludendorff in her divorce proceedings in July is a specialist on nervous diseases. The ceremony was performed in the festival hall of the city hall of Tutzing, on Starnberg lake.

Although the wedding was to be strictly private, Gen. Ludendorff upon reaching the city hall found a large cheering crowd, with representatives of the veterans' societies, the fire brigade and the singing verein.

Four Nuns Admitted By Immigration Body

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Four nuns, who had been detained here by customs officials since Saturday, were released today after a brief hearing before a special board of inquiry at immigration headquarters. The nuns proved their right to enter the United States, and the customs department brought no criminal charge against them.

The four were held by customs officials until an assessment of $4,000 had been paid on rare laces found concealed on their persons Saturday.

German Hopes to Cut Channel Swim Record

Cologne, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Ernst Vierkoetter, the German swimmer, who recently broke the record for swimming the English channel, but lost it a few days later to Georges Michel, has left for Calais for an attempt to regain his honors.

Vierkoetter crossed the channel on August 30, in 12 hours, while on September 10, Michel did it in 11 hours and five minutes.

ADMITS HE KILLED MAN FIVE YEARS AGO

One of Four Prisoners Says He Shot George Bennett in Abandoned Mine.

Special to The Washington Post.

Webster Springs, W. Va., Sept. 14.—A confession that he fired the shot which killed George Bennett, 45, traveling salesman, five years ago in an abandoned coal mine at Webster Springs, has been made to Sheriff A. L. Gregory by James Davis, one of four men held here on charges of complicity in the crime.

Bennett's skeleton was found in the mine recently after his disappearance had remained a mystery for years. Davis said he went into the mine with others to get a drink of julep when, hearing a strange noise behind him, he whirled and fired at random, later stumbling over a body which he recognized as that of Bennett.

Davis had previously said that Sherman McCallister had confessed to killing Bennett. McCallister and William Hall are in jail and Arden Cogar is under $10,000 bond, all charged with complicity in the homicide.

Mexico Will Protest Three Texas Killings

Mexico City, Sept. 14 (By A. P.). Manuel Tellez, Ambassador to the United States, has been instructed to protest to the United States government against the alleged killing of Tomas Nunez and his two sons in Raymondsville, Tex. It is asserted that a mob broke into the jail and tortured and shot the Mexicans and beheaded Kelder Nunez.

26 DIE AS RUNAWAY CARS WRECK TRAIN

Freight Trucks Leap Clear Over Locomotive and Crush Coach; 50 Hurt.

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The railway wreck in the mountains of Brisbane county last night was the most disastrous ever known in this country. On the list already compiled there are 26 dead and 50 injured.

The accident occurred at midnight near Murulla, 100 miles northwest of Newcastle. Four runaway cars loaded with wool and traveling at great speed crashed into a mail train head-on. Apparently the wool cars, in the impact, jumped completely over the engine and the first coach of the mail train.

The engineer and the fireman were uninjured and the first coach was practically undamaged. The brunt of the collision fell upon the second coach. Rescuers worked all night and extricated 24 bodies from the wreck.

Deposed Canton Chief Loses Fight for Job

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—S. A. Lengel has lost his fight before the civil service commission for reinstatement as chief of police.

The commission today announced it sustained the action of Mayor S. M. Swarts in removing Lengel from office on the grounds that he bungled the police investigation of the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, on July 16, and that he was too familiar with underworld characters.

Famous Streets in Los Angeles Carry Flood of Traffic

Los Angeles has more concrete streets than any other city in the country—a total of 230 miles.

All of these streets are carrying a steadily increasing volume of traffic, and are doing so with very little maintenance.

Some of them are famous thoroughfares representing the most advanced type of paving construction.

They include Vine Street, "The Highway of the Movie Stars;" Franklin Avenue, one of Hollywood's fine residential streets; Cahuenga Avenue, the main artery leading into Los Angeles from the San Fernando Valley; and Hill Street from Washington to Santa Barbara Avenue.

Los Angeles is building more concrete streets every year. The latest of these is Pico Boulevard. This, when completed, will be from 34 to 68 feet wide throughout its entire length of seven miles.

It will pay other cities and towns to make a careful study of Los Angeles' advanced practice in permanent street paving.

Property owners and local authorities are invited to write to this office for the facts. Also ask for your copy of our free booklet on "Concrete Streets."

G. O. P. MAINE SUCCESS PLEASES WILL R. WOOD

Brewster's Majority Is Placed at 21,502; Legislature Is Republican.

NATIONAL VICTORY SEEN

Portland, Maine, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—With the tabulation of returns of yesterday's biennial election virtually complete today, Gov. Ralph O. Brewster, Republican, was reelected with a plurality of 21,502 over Mayor Ernest L. McLean, Democrat, of Augusta.

The pluralities of the four representatives in Congress, all Republicans, in incomplete returns were: Beedy, 8,766; White, 7,552; Nelson, 10,266; Hersey, 9,250.

A constitutional amendment sponsored by Gov. Brewster to prohibit the appropriation of public funds for private schools or other institutions was defeated by a margin of more than 25,000.

The legislature will be strongly Republican.

Henry F. Cummins, Republican, who was removed as sheriff by Gov. Brewster a few months ago after charges of laxity in the administration of the Kennebec county jail, was elected sheriff again by a majority of 18 over Joseph E. Jewett, Democrat.

Chicago, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Republican majorities in yesterday's Maine election were declared today by Representative Will R. Wood, of Indiana, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee to emphasize "that the position taken by the Republican party on the issues in the fall election has met with the sanction of the voters."

The result, Wood said, is "a fair index of what the result will be throughout the entire country in November."

"The wonderful success of this national administration has won the confidence of the people, and that confidence will find expression in other States as completely as it has in Maine."

Democrats Seek Aid Of Farm Candidates

(By the Associated Press.)

Members of the Farmer-Labor party in Minnesota were urged yesterday by Chairman Oldfield of the Democratic congressional committee to line up with Democrats in that State. After a conference with C. A. Quist, Minnesota Democratic chairman, he issued a statement pointing out that Democrats had not placed candidates in the field against Representatives Carss, Kvale and Wefald, nor George Himsl in the Sixth district, all of whom are of the Farmer-Labor party.

"It will be necessary for these candidates to get Democratic votes to win," Oldfield said. "They should assure Minnesota Democrats that they desire and prefer their support."

Connecticut G. O. P. Renominates Bingham

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 14 (By A. P.)—United States Senator Hiram Bingham, who has been a member of the upper house of Congress for the past two years, was renominated without opposition at the Republican State convention here today.

Gov. John H. Trumbull will head the State ticket at the November election. He also was renominated without opposition.

Vare Is to Ignore Pinchot Charges

Indiana, Pa., Sept. 14 (By A. P.). Representative William S. Vare, Republican nominee for the United States Senate, arriving here on a campaign tour of the State today, indicated he felt no alarm over Gov. Pinchot's refusal to support his candidacy. Asked if he had any answer to the reasons advanced by the governor for his attitude, Mr. Vare said "that question was answered by the Republican voters of Pennsylvania at the primaries on May 18."

Mr. Vare, running on a wet platform, defeated Mr. Pinchot and Senator George Wharton Pepper, a candidate for reelection, at the primaries.

HILL-WELLER VOTE IS CLOSE; ZIHLMAN IS RENOMINATED

votes while in others a very light vote was cast.

Both Senator Weller and Representative Hill, whose warm primary campaigns, it is believed, have left many primary sores, were out early with their workers in Baltimore. Hill left his home in West Franklin street, Baltimore, before breakfast and made a tour of the Third congressional district. After getting his breakfast, he made a tour of practically every Baltimore precinct. He voted himself at 6 o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Hill, who had been ill here, went to Baltimore to vote.

Senator Weller also voted early, and, along with Galen L. Tait, internal revenue collector and the guiding genius of the senator's fight, took direct charge of his precinct workers in Baltimore.

Addison E. Mullikin, the Republican gubernatorial candidate on the Weller ticket, did a lot of buttonholing among his friends during the day in Baltimore, while William Milnes Maloy, the opponent on the Democratic ticket of Gov. Ritchie, made the rounds of the Baltimore city precincts. Gov. Ritchie cast his vote at Annapolis and then went to Baltimore to hear the returns.

Office workers in Baltimore reported that runners had awakened them shortly after 6 o'clock and urged them to vote.

In the first legislative district of Baltimore there was a fist fight between supporters of William I. Norris and John H. Bouse. Workers of the latter were armed with sample ballots and lengthy arguments which the Norris workers could not accept.

The world court figured largely in Hill's campaign against Weller in the senatorial fight, while Hill also sought to get the senator to say something about his wetness. He charged that Weller was wet in the city and dry in the country. Weller maintained a reticence throughout the campaign and his managers seldom replied to any of the Hill attacks.

With the exception of Allegany and Frederick counties and Baltimore city, preprimary indications were that the opposing forces had about split even in the remaining 21 counties. The Antisaloon league definitely disapproved Hill, and its leader, Dr. W. A. Crabbe, made known that he was not doing anything to stop the dry sentiment for Hill.

Maloy made his race against Gov. Ritchie chiefly on opposition to a third term, and on the grounds that the governor has not enforced the law. Maloy is said to be wet personally, but made his campaign on law enforcement. As a result he got the indorsement of the Antisaloon league which disapproved the governor. The Maryland Law Enforcement league also gave its support to Maloy.

Representative Millard G. Tydings was unopposed for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Candidates in Montgomery Named Without Opposition

The following had no opposition at yesterday's Democratic and Republican primary elections in Montgomery county; their names, therefore, did not appear on the ballots, and they will be certified by the supervisors of elections as chosen:

Democrats—United States senator, Millard E. Tydings; House of Representatives, Frank W. Mish; State comptroller, William S. Gordy; attorney general, Thomas H. Robinson; clerk of the court of appeals, James A. Young; chief judge, Sixth judicial circuit, Samuel A. Lewis; State senator, Eugene Jones; clerk of the circuit court, Preston B. Ray; register of wills, Perrie E. Waters; county treasurer, John Gardner; county commissioner, Third district, Clagett C. Hilton; delegates to State convention, Harry W. Blunt, Elizabeth O. Leavell, Mary Dodge Lewis, Salvin W. Mullinix and J. Roger Spates.

Republicans—State comptroller, Charles F. Goodall; attorney general, William F. Broening; chief judge, Sixth judicial circuit, Hammond Urner; house of delegates, Walter P. Plumley; State's attorney, Harold C. Smith; county treasurer, Richard C. Drum-Hunt; sheriff, James Oscar Thompson; county commissioner, First district, Hiram Harvey; county commissioner, Fourth district, Frank H. Karn; delegates to State convention, Mrs. Don E. Clark, William F. Dianey, Mrs. Annie J. Moore, Hewitt Griggs Robertson, Harry L. Willard; State central committee, Clara C. Holmes, Paul Sleman, Simon O. Smith, Wilson L. Townsend, F. Barnard Welsh.

The vacancies on the Republican ticket will be filled by the Republican State central committee within the next few days, it was announced yesterday.

Montgomery Republicans Nominate Mrs. M. T. Stock

Mrs. Mary T. Stock, of Bethesda, apparently had a safe lead in Montgomery county's warm three-cornered Republican primary fight for the State senate on the face of returns received last night.

Nine out of 21 precincts gave her 632 votes; Frank L. Hewitt, 397, and John F. Siebert, 311.

Mrs. Stock, whose name was almost lost sight of in so far as the noise of the campaign was concerned, because of the bitter fight between Siebert and Hewitt, got 65 votes in one of the three precincts of Bethesda, against 21 for Hewitt and 10 for Siebert.

Returns were slow in the Democratic primary. Glen Echo, the only one to be heard from, showed all of the candidates indorsed by the county organization, running 4 to 1 over their opponents. Glen Echo gave Gov. Ritchie 120 votes as against 10 for William Milnes Maloy.

Nine out of the county's 21 precincts gave Eva C. Chase, seeking the Republican nomination for clerk of the court of appeals, 893 votes, and A. Kingsley Love 473.

Organization Democrats Lead in Prince Georges

Apparent nomination of the full Democratic organization ticket featured yesterday's primaries for county offices in Prince Georges county, while the incumbent on the face of available returns appeared to have won out in the Republican fight for control of the organization.

A close fight developed between Representative John Philip Hill and Senator Overton E. Weller for Republican senatorial honors. Fifteen out of the county's 29 precincts gave Hill 866 and Weller 731. These same precincts gave Constable Thomas C. Garrison, of Hyattsville, 276, and Charles C. Stuart, 267, in the race for sheriff.

Gov. Ritchie apparently carried the county by a 2,500 majority over his opponent for the Democratic nomination for governor, William Milne Maloy.

The Democratic organization ticket was leading the field easily by from 800 to 1,500 majority. This meant the apparent victory of Charles S. Early, of Brandywine, for sheriff, over a field of nine candidates, and the following for the county commisison: J. August Miller, of Chillum; T. B. Middleton, Silver Hill; Brice Bowie, Riverdale; George W. Waters, jr., of Laurel, and Dr. H. N. Bowen, of Aquasco, and for the house of delegates: Henry L. Morris, Marlboro; Burton A. Ford, College Park; William S. Keys, Mount Rainier J. Guy Bell, of Bowie, and Kent Roberts Mullikin of Laurel.

2 G. O. P. WETS LOSE IN NEW YORK BALLOT

Perlman, Corowther, Stalker Are Renominated for Seats in Congress.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Early returns from today's primary election in New York State indicated that at least three Republican members of Congress won renomination in the face of contests. The victors were Nathan D. Perlman, Fourteenth district (Manhattan); Frank Crowther, Thirtieth district, and Gale H. Stalker, Thirty-seventh district.

Representative Perlman defeated Bertram Hopper. Frank Crowther defeated E. Watson Gardiner, wet, who sought nomination in both the Republican and Democratic primaries. Representative Stalker, dry, defeated Edwin L. Evans, wet.

There was a Republican overturn in the Thirty-fourth district, where John D. Clarke defeated Harold S. Tolley. Two years ago Tolley defeated Clarke for renomination.

Representative John F. Quayle, Seventh district (Brooklyn), was renominated, defeating Francis J. Kelly.

Although defeated for the Republican nomination in the Thirtieth Congressional district, Gardiner won the nomination in the Democratic primary, defeating Frank Eckel, who was backed by the party organization.

Weeks and Brigham Leading in Vermont

Montpelier, Vt., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Former Judge John E. Weeks, of Middlebury, tonight led his opponents for the Republican nomination for governor in returns from 84 of the State's 248 towns and cities. Mr. Weeks polled 6,112 votes against 2,998 for former State Senator Max W. Powell, and 2,197 for Lieut. Gov. Walter K. Farnsworth.

In the same towns and cities for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, S. G. Holister was leading State Senator E. H. Edgerton, of Rochester, 2,329 to 2,022.

In the only other contest, also within the Republican party, Representative Elbert S. Brigham led State Senator Martin S. Vilas, 11,104 to 5,822.

J. F. Miller Is Ahead For Own House Seat

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—John F. Miller, incumbent, led his wet opponent, James McCabe, 1,119 to 447, when 26 precincts complete out of 364 had made returns in the race for the Republican nomination for representative from the First district of Washington tonight.

Twenty-five complete precincts for representative in the Third district gave: Johnson, incumbent, 1,143; H. D. Jones, 1,905; O. M. Nelson, 181.

EUROPE'S NEW PEACE PACT.

The Locarno security and arbitration treaties went into effect yesterday with the deposit of ratifications. So far as war can be chained by treaties, the European nations concerned have done well. France, Germany and Belgium agree to respect the frontier established by the treaty of Versailles, and Great Britain agrees to come to the support of the side that may suffer unprovoked attack. The contracting parties agree to submit all their disputes to arbitration.

The world will ardently hope that the security treaties will never be violated; that they endure forever.

Unfortunately, treaties do not stand in the way of war when nations want war. The principal Locarno treaty itself is a witness of this fact. In its preamble it states the reasons why a mutual guarantee of security is necessary, and among these reasons is the following:

> Taking note of the abrogation of the treaties for the neutralization of Belgium.

This is a soft and inoffensive reference to the fact that barely more than ten years ago a treaty intended to prevent war was violated.

Twelve years is but a moment in the life of nations. What will the next twelve years bring forth? The lovers of peace hope that the Locarno guarantee treaty will be even more binding then than now; that the governments pledging themselves to observe it will be able to check the war spirit in their respective territories in spite of the violence of human passions, and that no untoward series of incidents will develop misunderstandings and hatred flaming into war.

There is a constant clash of interests among the greater nations of Europe, largely on account of their imperialistic ambitions. There is also a vast field for beneficial cooperation. Germany's abandonment of militarism is the greatest single influence in behalf of European peace. Now, if the economic growth of those countries can be accomplished without stirring up national passions, and if the governments will follow the policy of cooperation rather than rivalry, there need not be any more war in Europe. Statesmanship of the highest order is needed, reinforced by well-informed public opinion and popular control of government. Europe must struggle out of debt, establish prosperity and give its people liberty. Every month and year of peace helps this process. The greatest danger lies in the collision of economic interests in the course of industrial and commercial expansion.

BREAKING UP PARTIES.

Following his defeat for renomination for the Senate by Gov. Blaine, Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, announced he could not support the nominee and maintain his own self-respect. In Harrisburg, on Monday, Gov. Pinchot gave out a statement in which he reaffirmed his Republicanism, but declared he could not stand for Vare because he considered him "not fit to represent Pennsylvania in the Senate of the United States."

Gov. Pinchot and Senator Lenroot, in their respective States, made their fight within their party for the senatorial nomination. The majority of voters in each case decided by fairly large majorities that they preferred others in the running than the gentlemen who now repudiate the candidate selected. The least that may be said is that the conduct of these two distinguished Republicans is somewhat irregular.

The primary law is far from perfect; some of its weaknesses are glaring. There is no provision that the man who participates in a party primary must bind himself to support the nominee of the primary at the regular election. In some States electors may vote at primaries regardless of their political predilections and through this subversive and dangerous practice one party may dictate the nominee of the opposing party and force the selection of a man entirely unacceptable to members of the organization whose ticket he heads. This is conducive to bolting.

The action of Gov. Pinchot and Senator Lenroot emphasizes the fact, apparent to many students of politics, that the primary system is fast destroying all sense of loyalty to party and all semblance of party responsibility for government. Politics was cleaner under the old system of conventions than it is today with the primary. Originated with the purpose of abolishing the bosses and weakening their influence, the primaries have become the tool of the bosses, who have wielded its machinery as best pleased them and through the use of money have named candidates who, under any other system, could not have been successful.

Messrs. Pinchot and Lenroot probably are bolters in the strict sense of the word, but they have established a fashion that may be followed by many Republicans in their own and other States in the elections of November. If Senator Lenroot and Gov. Pinchot can justify themselves for failing to support their party nominees, thousands of other Republicans, less prominent in the organization, may take personal comfort from their declarations and begin to do a little scratching on their own account.

THE BOOK OF FACTS.

The "Democratic Book of Facts" has been issued by the senatorial and congressional committees of that party, for the use of candidates and speakers in the campaign of 1926. It is designed to "expose the fallacies on which the Republican party depends for the winning of votes." The authors say:

> The facts show that alike in its domestic and in its foreign policies the Republican administration—more especially, if that is possible, since President Coolidge went to the White House—has been morally and intellectually bankrupt. * * * The fundamental issue is that of turning back control of the government at Washington to the American people.

Now, that is the proper method of writing a book. No beating about the bush, no mushy sentimentality—just plain facts and the naked issue. The authors might have hinted that the Republican administration under President Coolidge had been slightly imperfect, here and there; that among some of the people, at least, there was something akin to an attitude of dissent, or at any rate an inability to see eye to eye with the Republican party. The suggestion might have been cautiously thrown out that the Republican party's moral and intellectual capital had been somewhat diminished by reason of overexertion. But no; the book of facts comes right out and announces total bankruptcy. It leaves to the Republican party not a rag of moral covering or a scintilla of intelligence.

That's the way to do it! "That's the stuff!" No reader of the Book of Facts, accepting it as such, can fail to feel the fury of revolt stirring within him. He will be seized with a desire to march on Washington and wrest the government from the moral and intellectual bankrupts who have played havoc with this fair land.

The Book of Facts answers that universal query, "What is the issue?" The issue is the turning out of the Republican party. All talk of farm relief, tariff, debt collections, primary slush funds, &c., is wasted breath. "Turn out the Republicans!" There is the issue, the only issue, the burning issue, the issue that appeals to every Democrat, wet or dry, North or South, East or West.

In due time, perhaps, a "Republican Book of Facts" will appear. Its authors will miserably fail unless they pattern their work after the Democratic masterpiece. There must be no fine writing or kid-glove tactics. The Democratic party must be proved morally and intellectually destitute, beyond any reasonable doubt, or all is lost. Moreover, the book of Republican facts must show that the perpetuity of the republic will be shattered by a change of administration, and that the only issue before the people is, "Don't turn us out!"

As the book of Democratic facts so truly says, "One fact is worth a dozen theories." The country is sick of theories. It is well that all nonsense should be swept away. The issue will be sharply defined when one irresistible book of facts collides with another immovable book of facts. It may be expressed like this: Each party having proved that the other is morally and intellectually bankrupt, which one shall be placed in power?

TOO MUCH GAS.

Gas filling stations in several of the Western college towns are destined to suffer a substantial diminution in their receipts during the winter as a result of the action of several university heads. These "prexies" take the view that the "lizzie" must no longer be a factor in the curriculum. They believe the business of obtaining a higher education can be better conducted on foot than through the use of four or five gallons of gas each week, usually consumed after nightfall. There would seem to be a lot of hard common sense, in the conclusions reached by these college presidents.

More bold than its contemporaries, the University of Chicago has decreed absolutely that its matriculants may not have cars while attending their studies and lectures. The University of Michigan has declared against an "unlimited" use of automobiles, while the head of the University of Wisconsin advises parents not to supply their boys with these diverting attractions. Agreeing to the general principle that use of the automobile is an educational deterrent while school is on, these eminent professors do not travel the same pathway in reaching their common destination. The Illinois educators conclude merely that the boys are too prone to waste their time in riding about and neglecting their studies. In Wisconsin the argument is that use of motor cars during the college years is harmful to morals and tends to increase the patronage of road houses. But, whatever be his reason, prexy probably is right when he contends that the average youth of today can not put his whole mind on his books during the day when he is planning to step on the gas at night.

"THE FARMER'S DOLLAR."

In order to arouse the prejudice of the farmers it is repeatedly asserted that "the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar has decreased from $1.12 in 1918 to 66.3 cents in 1926."

This is another way of stating that the prices of farm products, as compared with non-agricultural products, have declined nearly one-half since 1918.

This is a misleading statement. The years 1918 and 1919 were years of inflated currency and inflated prices. The dollar of the farmer has been and is precisely the same dollar as that of the wage earner or manufacturer.

Wheat was $2.50 a bushel in 1918 and is $1.25 a bushel in 1926, first, because the volume of paper dollars was so great in 1918 as to make their value low; and second, because the demand for wheat in 1918 was greater than the supply, while in 1926 the supply is greater than the demand.

It is idle for any political party or any statesman to promise to raise the purchasing power of the "farmer's dollar" by law. It is equally idle for any political party to promise to make wheat worth $2.50 a bushel by act of Congress. Yet this is practically what some politicians are promising the farmers.

Is it proposed that the money returns from farm products shall be made higher, so that the "farmer's dollar" shall be on a par with the manufacturer's dollar and the consumer's dollar? If so, the fact should be stated clearly, with all that it implies. It means that Congress is to be asked to raise the prices of farm products and then hold them at a high price, against the consumer.

What would be thought of such a proposal if it should come from the consumers? A shortage of some foodstuffs may occur at any time, thereby boosting the price. If the politicians are now right in demanding that prices shall be raised, other politicians would then be right in demanding that prices be lowered. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. The producer can not have special legislation in this country without creating a similar demand from the consumer.

FOREIGN TRAFFIC OFFENDERS.

There is much truth in the statement of Traffic Director Eldridge that defiance of traffic regulations by drivers of diplomats' cars on Washington's highways has become a menace to the lives of the people. There has been a sufficient number of examples of reckless driving of late by those entitled to diplomatic immunity to justify the criticisms of the authorities. The police can not arrest them, and officials assert that reports of such violations of law to the Federal authorities have not been productive of any improvement in the situation.

It is difficult to believe, however, that the head of any foreign mission in this Capital would tolerate conduct of this character if brought to his attention through the proper channels. With the cooperation of the State Department the situation, so far as it relates to diplomatic cars, can be completely controlled. If there are members of any foreign legation here who defy the laws and refuse to heed admonitions made in kindly spirit, all the State Department need do is to intimate to the foreign government in question that the recall of the offending individual would not be displeasing.

The people of Washington are entitled to protection on the streets against the reckless driving, even of those who are immune from arrest.

WHERE WHEAT GOES.

Official figures indicate that the American wheat crop this year will be approximately 839,000,000 bushels, and that about 200,000,000 will be exported. That is, about 639,000,000 will be consumed in the United States. In 1924 production was about 862,000,000 bushels, and the exported portion about 225,000,000 bushels. In 1922 the production was about 867,000,000 bushels, while 205,000,000 bushels were exported. In other words, about 25 per cent in each year was exported, while 75 per cent was consumed in the United States. For the twelve months ended in June, 1926, exports were less than 100,000,000 bushels.

Flour production in terms of wheat varies from 45,000,000 bushels to 80,000,000 bushels, and exports have been about 40,000,000 bushels. For the twelve months ended last June, exports of flour in terms of wheat were about 45,000,000 bushels—30,000,000 bushels of domestic wheat and 15,000,000 bushels imported from Canada.

Thus the American market consumes about three-fourths of all the wheat grown in the United States. The American growers of wheat must depend upon the consuming power of the American people to dispose of three-fourths of the crop. While it is true that the price of American wheat is influenced by the world supply, nevertheless the American price, as a rule, depends largely upon the consuming power and the demand of the American people.

No act of Congress can make the price of American wheat twice what it brings in the American and world markets. A law fixing the price of American wheat must make the government responsible for that price. To accomplish that the government must buy wheat and engage in the wheat business.

The Worst Story I Heard Today—By Will Rogers

The Worst Joke I heard today was told to me by Duke Cross. If you ever saw "No, No, Nannette" you saw Duke Cross. He is one of America's best light comedians. I met him here in London last night, and a funny thing about it is that he and I and Nora Bayes were all in a Show together here in London in 1914 just before the war, and Nora is here now, too, so we will have to have a Re-union.

Duke and I started out our Musical Comedy career in a Show "Blanche Ring in the Wall Street Girl," and what a great trooper Blanche was! That was the first time we had ever seen a $2.00 audience. That was the highest price there was; now you can't get into a Moving Picture shooting Gallery for $2. Here is a new English one Duke told me.

A Vaudeville Comedian had just got a job in a Musical show in London and to everybody's surprise he had a beautiful voice. He sang several songs about the 'opes that 'elp the 'ungry 'eart, and the Manager suggested that he "should like to hear an 'aitch, or two.

"Blime me, what do you want?" said the Comedian. "You are a dumb one. How you going to sing an 'aitch? There ain't nothing higher than G."

PRESS COMMENT.

Snake Bites in India.

Detroit News: In India they have few automobiles, but the snakes tried to make up for the lack by killing 19,308 persons last year.

Lady Astor and Jazz.

New York Sun: When Lady Astor defined jazz as the spiritual songs of the negro race filled with the evil of the white man's life she took refuge in a psychological view of a musical subject.

In the Good Old Days.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch: An electric refrigerator has been placed in the White House, which, we presume, sends to the junk pile the ice pick with which Grover Cleveland and Dan Lamont used to keep cool, in one way and another.

Plant It Here!

Brooklyn Eagle: It has been discovered in Europe that the Accario decuremns species of the mimosa tree is "unburnable" and forest fires can be checked with closely planted barriers. Europe has learned to plan for the future. That is where America is behind the times.

Pomerene, "Dark Horse,"

Louisville Courier-Journal: Pomerene, if he wins back the senatorship, will be a "favorite son" of the "dark horse" type. Personally and geographically he is in a position to bid for the nomination as a compromise candidate. Ohio is situated between California and New York, agriculturally identified with the middle West and related industrially to the East, while Mr. Pomerene is conservatively established midway of the "wet" and "dry" extremes. Already his presidential qualifications are being dangled before Ohio eyes to tempt State pride.

A Lesson Never Learned.

New York Evening World: It is an amazing thing that after all these centuries even the anarchist has not learned the futility of assassination as a political weapon. The fifth attempt upon the life of Mussolini within the period of his dictatorship has miraculously failed, and the superstitious will conceive the idea that he is a darling of the gods and under their protection. The effect will be to strengthen the regime of the man this crazy anarchist sought to remove. If he were familiar with the assassination of Caesar he would know that the murder of individuals seldom or never puts a period to a dynasty or regime.

Tariff the Chief Issue.

Indianapolis News: Speaking as a representative of the Coolidge administration and particularly as labor's member of the cabinet, James J. Davis told a group of Indiana Republican leaders that the tariff is the principal issue before the people. He referred particularly to the dumping of European steel upon the American market and declared that if the country did not go to the rescue of the industry there would be a reversion to the economic stagnation of 1894 to 1896. His attitude indicated that the administration is not convinced that there should be a general modification downward of tariff rates during its remaining two years of tenure.

Costly Bouquets.

Trenton State Gazette: Flower-picking in Bucks county, Pa., is a hazardous proposition unless one is sure as to the ownership of the floral specimens plucked. According to a law recently enacted by the State legislature of Pennsylvania, a fine of $25 can be imposed for each flower taken from private property. And, lest the casual visitor suppose that this is a mere legal formality, take note of the $200 penalty levied upon a Philadelphian who couldn't resist the temptation to gather a bouquet from a Doylestown lawn.

Dumping and Farm Relief.

New York World: The stir created by the discovery that German steel manufacturers have possibly been shipping their products into the United States at less than cost and in contravention of our anti-dumping legislation, is something which the advocates of farm relief along the lines of the Haugen bill would do well to consider.

The adoption of the Haugen bill, or of any similar plan, would not only revive dumping on an enormous scale, but it would put the American government into the position of cooperating in this activity, even to the extent of financing it.

A government which did that could not complain with any consistency if foreigners employed similar methods in their trade with the United States.

MIGDAL-ON-GALILEE.

A health resort and residential colony, with such modern improvements as electric lighting, sewers, water system and hard paved streets, is being erected in Palestine on the east shore of the Sea of Galilee, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A 1,500-acre tract on the lake shore, three miles from Tiberias, once the center of Hebrew learning, has been cut into building lots. The district has been named Migdal Garden Villa and is situated in the valleys known in the Talmud as Emek Genossar, from which the choicest fruits were carried to the temple on festive holidays.

DYEING TREES.

Magical experiments have been made recently by a scientist in the Maine woods, who has been coloring trees with indelible dyes. By a new process he can transform an ordinary beech tree into "rosewood," says Popular Science Monthly, and birch into "mahogany," which are said to defy detection by expert lumber men and furniture manufacturers.

The coloring matter saturates the trees from the outer surfaces to the hearts of the trunks. In the process holes are bored at the base of the trunk, and these serve as reservoirs for the dyes.

MADRIGAL OF MORNING.

M. K. WALSH, in The Carolinian.

The hour of dawn is night, my dear,
And the moon is under the hill,
But do not weep
That moons must sleep.
For other hearts with joy shall fill
To see this nymph, like Venus, spring
Bright from some distant deep.
She will come back and the birds will sing
And the rose its soft enchantment bring—
But pressing your lips, I need no rose.
And with your voice, no bird.
What matter moons and songs unheard
And nights that ever close?
There is no need to weep.

A Handful of Aphorisms

By GLENN FRANK

IN Dean Inge's latest book—"Lay Thoughts of a Dean"—there are two interesting essays on aphorisms.

"In old times, when books were scarce and readers few, the traditional wisdom of the race," he says, "was handed down chiefly of aphorisms, maxims and epigrams, which stick in the memory."

The makers of these ancient maxims were men who played Boswell to the mind of the race and distilled into sentences with bite and brevity the concentrated essence of the common sense of their time.

Ponderous books of aphorisms give us a sense of artificiality. A few of these cut flowers of the mind will go a long way.

But I found amusement and stimulation in the following aphorisms which I have culled from the context of Dean Inge's two essays:

"The aged are fond of giving good advice; it consoles them for no longer being able to give a bad example."

This came, as you may guess, from a cynical Frenchman:

"A maker of idols is never an idolater."

It still pays to watch carefully the maker of catch-words and war-cries to see how seriously he takes them.

"War is attractive to those who have had no experience of it; but those who have tried it dread its approach exceedingly."

This comes not from a modern pacifist, but from the ancient Pindar.

"Those who wish to appear learned to fools appear fools to the learned."

This shaft from Quintilian punctures much of the hothouse culture that is bandied about dinner tables.

"The less one has to do the less time one finds to do it in," said Lord Chesterfield, antedating the now common theory that if you want real work on the committee you are forming call on the busiest man in town.

"A wise man will live at least as much within his wit as within his income."

This might well be pasted over the writing desks of many of the too consciously cute writers of the moment.

And these from the late Bishop Creighton, of whom Dean Inge says, "What cruelty to make this brilliant man a bishop, whose main duties, according to a former prime minister, are to suffer fools gladly and to answer letters by return of post!"

"There is nothing in life except to enjoy what one is doing."

"In dealing with ourselves, after we have let the ape and the tiger die, there remains the donkey, a more intractable and enduring animal."

"We can not improve the world faster than we improve ourselves."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Dome of Night.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Under a darkened dome of sparkling stars! Thousands of sun-gems visible to our natural eyesight. Millions and millions revealed by assisted eyesight—the telescope and camera plate. Scintillating stars, and, sometimes, one or more shining planets. And, perhaps, a beautiful full moon, just rising above a wooded knoll. Now and then, a sudden faint flash, when an aerolite bombards the atmosphere. How glorious is our northern darkened dome, particularly if no cloud curtains it. How magnificent, when golden Arcturus, azure Vega, yellowish Altair and reddish Antares adorn it. Truly, it reminds us of some verses, written years ago:

Like Time's vast dial open to the eye
Its jewelled hands revolving round and round.
Night's darkened dome extends across the sky,
An ebon roof above Earth's sphere of ground.
Like searchless gulf of deathless mystery,
Where silently the laws of God evolve,
That sky will shine when human history
And human life eternally dissolve.
Its suns shall blaze like beacons when man's home
Drifts lifelessly beneath that darkened dome.

CHARLES NEVERS HOLMES.
Reading, Mass., Sept. 13.

Chivalry Not Dead.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Yesterday I stood on the loading platform at Fourteenth and U streets, waiting for my car north. It was about 5 o'clock—the rush hour of the day; and there was an almost constant stream of automobiles passing.

As the car south came up and stopped, I saw two colored men start to cross the tracks behind it, hesitate, then hurry over to our side. One of them was blind. The other saw the blind man safely on the platform; then turned and went quickly back to the southbound platform.

The blind man swung his cane out in front, and we all stepped aside to give him room. It was only three or four steps across the platform, then down a step to the street, and as he seemed about to step off, unconscious of the danger, we spoke. "Be careful, do not take another step." But he wanted to cross to the sidewalk, and at once a fine looking, well-dressed young man had him by the arm and was piloting him safely over. I smiled as he returned, at thought of the kindly act.

Then I turned to look for the blind man. He was walking briskly along the sidewalk, feeling the way with his cane. At the corner he hesitated, but just there was another colored man with a bundle under his arm, and in a moment he was taking his blind brother by the arm and piloting him across the street.

There I lost sight of him, but here I am at 3 o'clock in the morning, wide awake, thinking of the beautiful little incident, and happy to know that deeds of unselfish kindness are still done in the land, —that the spirit of chivalry is not dead. MARY STUART.

Washington, September 14.

Worth the Cost.

Philadelphia Inquirer: Henry Ford says use of the word "please" in telegrams costs us $10,000,000 every year, and maybe it does, but what about it, if so? The amount of breath used annually in saying "please" would probably furnish air for 8,716,945,831 tires, but it's worth it, even at that price.

NICARAGUAN REBELS ATTACK AN ISLAND, KEY TO BLUEFIELDS

El Bluff Again Bombarded; All Houses There Are Reported Damaged.

U. S. OFFICIAL'S HOME RIDDLED BY SHELLS

Garrison Holding Out, in Face of the Attempts to Starve Defenders.

Managua, Nicaragua, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The revolutionists bombarded El Bluff heavily this morning and made a fierce attack on Deer island, which controls the channel to Bluefields.

This attack, however, was repulsed by the government forces. All the houses on El Bluff, it is reported, are being damaged by the bombardment, but casualties are few.

The revolutionists hold a small island which controls the mouth of the Rama river. Germans and Americans are reported fighting with the revolutionists. The government may send a bombing plane here to attack the rebels.

The government has requested the republic of Salvador not to permit the Mexican gun-running boat El Tropical to leave the port of Salvador, where it had returned after the battle of Consaguina. The vessel is reported to have aboard 3,500 rifles, machine guns and ammunition for the revolutionists.

The disorders are causing the mahogany and fruit companies of the east coast heavy losses owing to demurrage and the loss of logs floating out to sea. The revolutionists have virtually blocked Bluefields. Intermittent fighting continues, the revolutionists trying to starve out the garrison of El Bluff, which still receives supplies from Bluefields, as government forces still hold the key positions in Bluefields harbor.

Crampton's Home Wrecked.

W. J. Crampton, American collector of customs at Bluefield, reports that the garrison at El Bluff is holding its own although it has been subjected to a fierce bombardment for four days.

"As I left El Bluff," said Mr. Crampton, "my boat was sprayed with machine-gun bullets from revolutionary guns on the beach. All the windows in my home are broken. Many 3-inch shells have passed through my house, which is almost a total wreck."

Mr. Crampton's home occupies the site of an old fort. A dynamite house on the wharf has been a target for the artillery of the revolutionists. All the explosives were removed several days ago and the bombardment has proved to be only a waste of ammunition.

(By the Associated Press.)

Rear Admiral Latimer, commanding American naval forces at El Bluff, Nicaragua, reported yesterday that he had sent an armed boat to aid a British merchant steamer which signaled that revolutionary troops had boarded her while loading hardwood and ordered her to move elsewhere.

The American officer told the revolutionists there must be no interference with foreign shipping.

COOLIDGE OPPOSES FURTHER TAX CUTS AT PRESENT TIME

most desirable as contributing to a better understanding between the two.

The conference is called for business men to consider some means of aiding in a solution of the land question in that region.

Indications were given today at the Summer White House that the Washington government would give no special attention to the report of the Sherwood Eddy commission favoring recognition of the Russian Soviet government by the United States.

President Coolidge understands, it was said, that the commission, which passed a month in Russia, has no more, if as much, information on conditions there as has the State Department.

There was no indication that the position of the President has changed on the question, which has resulted in his refusing to consider extension of recognition under present conditions.

Relatives Depart.

John Coolidge, son of the President, and Mrs. Elmyra Goodhue, mother of Mrs. Coolidge, left the summer White House today. The boy is returning to Amherst college, where he is soon to begin his junior year, while Mrs. Goodhue goes back to her home in Northampton, Mass., after a visit of several weeks at White Pine Camp.

Snappy fall weather is giving Mr. Coolidge a sample of what winter is like in the Adirondacks. The chief executive wore a heavy overcoat when he went to his office yesterday afternoon, and the fireplace in the cabin of the camp was the center of the President's family circle last evening, as the thermometer fell toward the freezing point.

President Feels Benefitted By Vacation in Mountains

Paul Smiths, N. Y., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—President Coolidge feels that his more than ten weeks of outdoor life in the northern Adirondacks have benefited him greatly, and he will return to Washington at the end of this week refreshed and invigorated.

Mr. Coolidge's pleasure in coming to this region was made clear today during a discussion of many questions when he received newspaper correspondents for probably the last press conference at the summer White House. Felicitations were exchanged through spokesmen both for the press and the President, and then the correspondents adjourned to White Pine Camp, where they were guests this afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge.

The change in coming from the sea level of Washington to this altitude of 1,600 feet has benefited the President, who will return to the National Capital with toughened sinews and a general physical improvement received through hours of tramping and boating with rod and reel. But, it was said the change is the important thing to the President, and for that reason he will not come to this region next year, but will go to some other place new to him.

The President's health was good when he came here early in July, it was stated, while it was added with a smile, he has apparently been able to hold his own here. In fact, Mr. Coolidge, in speaking of his physical condition to friends, often remarks that he is the healthiest President the country has known.

Prosperity to Continue, Dry Goods Men Predict

Paul Smiths, N. Y., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—A report of business conditions, as observed by leading retail merchants throughout the country, presented to President Coolidge today, set forth that "the retail trade feels the strongest confidence in the continuance of good business, based upon a prosperity which is shared quite generally by all classes of the people."

The report was submitted to Mr. Coolidge by Herbert J. Tily, of Philadelphia, and Lew Hahn, of New York city, president and managing director, respectively, of the National Retail Dry Goods association, who discussed business conditions with the President at the summer executive offices.

The survey, which was compiled from telegraphic replies sent by department stores in response to a request for last-minute information which Mr. Tily and Mr. Hahn desired to lay before the President, said that "firm confidence on the continuance of general prosperity" was the outstanding feature of all the answers.

"Apparently there is no expectation of great booms," said the report, "but rather a steady growth of trade, and in many instances merchants volunteered the thought that the wise and stabilizing conservatism of the national administration is the foundation for this expectation."

After the conference with Mr. Coolidge, Mr. Tily expressed the opinion that business men throughout the country would "appreciate anything that will lead to a stabilization of conditions."

"Legislation of an experimental nature," he added, "destined to reach down and change the fundamentals of things would be exceedingly bad, we believe."

FRENCH INSULT DEAD AMERICANS, IS CHARGE

French debt, at length, amplifying views he already has expressed in New York. He hit hard at Newton D. Baker and criticized President Coolidge for not having "courage" to deal properly with the French debt situation. He charged the cancellation propaganda was inspired by "international bankers" and "maudlin sentimentalists." He pictured France as busy and prosperous so far as the people are concerned, but the government is poor because the people wouldn't pay taxes. He said there was in fact no government except "a kaleidoscope."

He declared this government should call the debt negotiations with France off and refuse any settlement except at 100 cents on a dollar so long as France is picturing this country as an unjust creditor and "a grasping Shylock." He added: "The President, if he had the courage, which he has not, would say to France, 'You can pay your debts or you can repudiate them. We don't cringe and we don't beg, and we are not Shylocks.' If that were said the attitude of Europe toward us would change over night."

Referring to Baker's plea for cancellation, Senator Caraway said he wondered who was Baker's client.

"I think I know," he added.

He likened to "treason" the action of Americans who "represent that we are seeking to obtain from Europe that which we are not entitled to receive."

Senator Caraway pictured Germany as highly industrious and getting back on her feet. As to Mussolini, he pronounced him "the strongest man in the world" and said his loss would be a great misfortune to Italy.

not recommending the southwest or waterfront site. Another was that it was too far from the center of population and generally inaccessible for the consumer. In support of this contention it was stated that only 25 per cent of the total business of the fish market located on the water front was from retail business. Another objection raised to this site was that it would interfere with future development of the waterfront which plans anticipate eventually a driveway or parkway from Potomac park to the War college.

Objections to the Patterson tract north of Florida avenue northeast were that it was out of the center of population and on only one street car line. The grading and construction of a market on this site, the report stated, would prove very expensive. Furthermore, it was pointed out that there was an insistant demand by the various civic organizations that this tract be made into a public park.

McMahon—Lanhardt Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Louise Lanhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lanhardt, to Mr. Everett George McMahon, of Hyattsville, Md., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McMahon, of Washington, D. C., took place yesterday evening at 8 o'clock in the Pinkney Memorial church at Hyattsville, the Rev. Henry L. Durrant officiating. Palms, gladioli, ferns and hydrangeas formed the setting for the ceremony. Miss Louise Charlton, of Hyattsville, sang. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white imported georgette made in bouffant style and trimmed with pearls and rose point lace. Her court train was beaded in pearls and her tulle veil fell from a cap of duchess and rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lillies of the valley.

Miss Mamie Lanhardt, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, was in a gown of Nile green georgette, bouffant style, with a hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Esther Hall, of Washington; Miss Dorothea Plitts, of Edgemoor, Md.; Mrs. Albert McClay, of Hyattsville, and Miss Daisy Carter, of Washington. They all had gowns of georgette, bouffant style, in nasturtium shades, with hats to match, and they carried Ophelia roses.

Mr. Samuel Smart, of Washington, acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. W. R. Hamill, jr., of Riverdale; Mr. Charles Lanhardt, brother of the bride; Mr. Millard Charlton and Mr. Albert McClay, both of Hyattsville. There was a reception immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, the decorations there being similar to those at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. McMahon later departed on a wedding trip to Atlantic City, the latter wearing a traveling costume of toast-brown satin with hat and shoes to match. They will make their home after October 15 on Queens Chapel road, West Hyattsville.

Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Adeline Gall, of Glasgow, Scotland; Mrs. S. C. Lanhardt, of Atlantic City, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Simmells, of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pearman, of Richmond, Va.

Keep in Trim!

Good Elimination Is Essential to Good Health.

TO be well, keep your eliminative system active! The kidneys are the blood filters. If they fail to function as they should, there is apt to be a retention of body poisons. Symptoms are a dull, languid feeling and, often, toxic backaches, headaches, and dizziness. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is sometimes shown by burning or scanty excretion. More and more people are learning to assist their kidneys by drinking plenty of pure water and the occasional use of a stimulant diuretic. Doan's Pills have been publicly recommended by more than 50,000 endorsers. Ask your neighbor!

FAIRFAX COUNTY'S FAIR TO OPEN TODAY AS BIGGEST OF ALL

Historic Seat Will Be Scene of an Exhibition Lasting Through Saturday.

MARYLAND WILL TRY FOR EXHIBIT RIBBONS

Some of Fastest Horses of Region to Race in Annual Feature.

The thirteenth annual fair of the Fairfax County Fair association will open today with its sponsors predicting it will be the "biggest and best" in the association's history.

Fairfax Court House, historic seat of the county, will be the scene of the fair, which will last through Saturday. Visitors began arriving yesterday and found the town in holiday mood and attire.

Much livestock and poultry has arrived, as well as many domestic and agricultural exhibits. Many exhibitors are from outside the county, a large number being from Maryland. The pure bred cattle are said to be among the finest in the world.

Horse races always are a feature of the fair. This year it is promised some of the swiftest animals in the region will be entered.

County Founded in 1742.

Clifton Laughlin, of McLean, is president of the fair association. Other officers are D. M. Woodward, of Fairfax, vice president; R. R. Buckley, secretary; Robert D. Graham, assistant secretary, and J. Stuart Ball, treasurer.

The board of directors is composed of Woodward, D. S. Mackall, Ball, Mark Turner, W. M. McNair, C. T. Rice, George K. Pickett, Edward R. Connor, Melvin C. Hazen, Fred Drew, Buckley, Thomas R. Keith, Laughlin, Dr. George B. Lee, John W. Rust, Franklin Williams, H. C. Ayers, Dr. F. M. Brooks, B. S. Salsbury, James Birkett, A. M. Remschell and E. M. Palmer.

Fairfax county was founded in 1742 and named in honor of Thomas Lord Fairfax, widely known since as the owner of the northern neck of Virginia. A portrait of Lord Fairfax, presented by his heirs, hangs in the courthouse.

Capt. John Smith, on one of his explorations, ascended the Potomac river and landed in what now is a part of the county.

MEXICO TO COMBAT UPRISING OF YAQUIS

Indians Insist on the Right to Visit Shrine of Patron Saint at Magdalena.

Nogales, Ariz., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Information reaching here today stated that Yaqui Indinas, 2,500 strong, had deserted their small villages at Vicam, San Marceiel and other rail points in the state of Sonora, Mexico, and had taken to the hills for a powwow and council of war. The Indians are reported to have torn up rails and burned bridges to prevent the approach of Mexican federal troops.

The Indians are reported to have dispatched an ultimatum to the Mexican central government demanding that their right to visit Magdalena, Sonora shrine of their patron saint, San Francisco, October 4, be upheld. The government, the report said, had refused to accede to the request.

Gen. Alvaro Obregon, former president of Mexico, who was taken captive by the Indians yesterday and later released, is now at Lencho station, 77 miles south of Empalme, Sonora, in consultation with Gen. Francisco Manzo, corps area commander, who has received orders to advance into Yaqui territory.

EVANS, CALLING KLAN PERFECT, PLEADS FOR WAR ON SCHISMS

seem to waver between brown and blue, and dressed in a silk black dress with a black turban hat, blushed and smiled in appreciation of the applause that attended it. Subsequently she made a speech, and was greeted with the raised left hands, palms turned outward, the greeting of the order. She responded in kind.

Threatens Invaders.

Asserting that it had been said that the League of Nations would interfere in Mexico, the imperial wizard declared:

"If any European nation lands a force in Mexico, and if the United States government is not ready to act, thank God there are enough klansmen in America to do it."

Like a speaker of the first session, Dr. Evans referred to Rudolph Valentino's death and read an explanation in the Baltimore Catholic Review of how he was given absolution although he had been married twice. The Review explained that Valentino's second wife was "not Valentino's wife at all in the eyes of the church."

When Valentino married outside the church, according to the Review, he automatically cut himself off from the church, and his absolution given upon his death bed involved his "being sorry for his sins, making a firm purpose of amendment and by abiding by the penance given him by his confessor." It involved his renunciation of the second marriage, the Review said.

Church Rule Condemned.

"It is a travesty on our free government," the imperial wizard said, "when the representative of a church announces to its members that a marriage is null and void, unless performed by their church representative, and then further insists that if they perform the ceremony marrying members of their church to members of any other church, the children born to the persons so married shall be raised in their church."

Urging that the klan seek legislation making it a felony "for any person authorized to perform the marriage ceremony to agree or contract with the persons married that the children born of that marriage shall be raised in any given church," the imperial wizard said:

"To permit the selling of unborn children into religious bondage for the price of a marriage ceremony, is a violation of the principle of American freedom and its practice fatal to American social unity."

Asserting that the time had come for the klan to look to the future; unencumbered by defensive warfare, the wizard said:

"The ideas for which we stand have become the dominating thought in America; our power is recognized—we are today an organized army of veterans ready to advance against aggregation or combination of America's enemies. We are ready to go over the top." When this progressive program is under way, he said, "Klansmen as well as nonklansmen will know that our so-called prejudices and intolerances are not only justified, but righteous; that they spring from the deepest racial instincts, from righteous and patriotic conviction, and from sound judgment; that they are necessary for the advance of Americanism."

War Wrecked Strongholds.

"The one thing that the great war," he continued, "has left to the world is the wreckage of spiritual strongholds. To remake and hold a sturdy Protestantism is our constant aim and we are expecting and demanding that those who are enlisted in our army shall give their time and substance to the extent that Protestantism's call in an hour of desperation may be fully answered by the militant hosts of Americanism.

"No excuse need be made to those who claim the right to a propaganda, the truth of which they cannot prove, because we demand that the great problems brought by the practical organization of spiritual forces, shall be analyzed and solved by the public in America."

What might be taken as a hint of the organization's aim regarding parochial schools was seen in the following paragraph:

"The solution of the great problem of producing a common understanding as between all the people, lies through compulsory attendance of the public free schools. We shall labor ever and always to provide methods and facilities that will insure the best possible education and to have wise regulatory laws which will secure universal acquiescence in governmental control of education."

The dominance of Protestantism will mean the eradication of crime, he declared, asserting that three fourths of the criminals are natives of other lands. He attacked Gov. Al Smith, of New York, assesrting that a "nullifier" would never be advanced in the political life of this country. The klan rigidly approves prohibition, Dr. Evans said.

Klan Mourns Its Dead At Mystic Ceremonies

Silhouetted against the dim radiance diffused by two crosses of electric bulbs, klavaliers of the realm of Virginia, Ku Klux Klan, last night solemnized an impressive klonvocation of sorrow for the dead of the hooded order in the Washington auditorium before an audience of several thousand persons.

The awe-inspiring aspect of the ceremony, accentuated by funeral music, was heightened when the hall was plunged into darkness and klansmen emerged from the rear aisles and trooped silently onto the stage. This was hung with yellow drapery whereon the black dragon of the klan was depicted, together with the Latin motto "Quod Semper Quod Ubique Quod ab Omnibus" ("What always, everywhere and by all people has been believed"). American flags and electric crosses formed a background for the picturesque ritual.

Preceding the exercises a speaker requested the audience to refrain from applause, cheers or other demonstrations of feeling. It was then that the lights were first lowered, and finally extinguished entirely, until only the stage glowed under a clever series of illuminating devices. Across these illuminations the procession of red and white robed figures moved imposingly, chanted hymns, repeated mystic phrases, and gathered about a large gilt armchair where the presiding officer was seated. Throughout the klonvocation the audience showed itself respectful and enthralled. Only discreet coughs and the occasional creak of a seat interrupted the exercises.

"Love" was the keynote of an address concluding the klanvocation program and delivered by one of the participants. Taking as his theme the biblical admonition urging love of God and man, the speaker stressed "love of country" and pleaded with his hearers to remain always faithful to the ideals of patriotism. Once he digressed from his subject of "brotherly love" to ridicule the Prince of Wales falling from his horse.

A prayer for deceased klansmen was offered by an orator of Virginia and hymns were sung by other members standing in square formation about the stage. Emphasizing the semimilitary nature of the ceremony, trumpeters stationed about the hall sounded clarion notes in memory of the dead. The entire auditorium was decorated with American flags and klan colors that drooped from the balcony and hung from the sides of boxes.

Seceding Klansmen Form "Sons of Stars and Stripes"

Cumberland, Md., Sept. 14.—Representatives of 500 seceding members of the Ku Klux Klan, headed by James W. Webster, who was exalted cyclops previous to a clash in Fort Cumberland klan, this city, met last night in the klan headquarters in the Odd Fellows temple, still in the hands of the secessionists, and organized local No. 1, Sons of the Stars and Stripes.

These officers were chosen: President, James W. Webster; vice president, Howard Fisher; master of ceremonies, C. A. Oglebay; chaplain, A. S. Simmerfield; secretary, James A. Wiant; treasurer, Parry B. Gross; conductor, C. W. Yeargan; inner guard, Ralph Frantz; outer guard, Russell Hendrickson; color bearer, D. P. Gainer.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 14.—The Ku Klux Klan will be permitted to present an American flag to the College of William and Mary at Williamsburg on Sunday, September 26, providing no masks are worn during the ceremony or on the college grounds.

DELAY IN DEATH WON BY WOMAN'S STORY

Electrocution of Man Halted When She Admits She Killed Grocer.

Atlanta, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Gov. Clifford Walker today granted a respite of 60 days to Mell M. Gore who was to have been electrocuted at the State prison at Milledgeville today for complicity in the slaying of William H. Cheek, grocer, here last December.

Solicitor General John A. Boykin, of Fulton county, is to cross-examine Ruby Ray, who Sunday told officers that she killed Creek. The Ray woman, serving a six-year sentence in connection with a hold-up, said she masqueraded as a man and fired the shots which killed the grocer. Jack Wilson had been sought as the actual slayer.

Miss Ray arrived here this morning from Milledgeville and was immediately questioned by the solicitor general. It was announced that she had reiterated her statement to officers while en route here.

Fletcher Returns, Praising Mussolini

Special to The Washington Post.

New York, Sept. 14.—Henry P. Fletcher, American Ambassador to Italy, returned today on the Lloyd Sabaudo liner Conte Rosso, praising Premier Benito Mussolini to the highest degree and condemning the recent attempted assassination of the duce.

Mr. Fletcher is on two months' leave of adsence from his post at Rome. He was enthusiastic over Italy's future, declaring her finances are sound, that her revenues exceed her expenditures and that her floating debt is being reduced, all under the sound guidance of Mussolini who has started the process of deflation.

POINTS OF Number 7 LEADERSHIP

First to adopt
DUCO

THE General Motors Research Laboratories cooperated with E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, Inc., in the development of Duco—an achievement ranking in importance with the invention of the self-starter.

Duco is not only far more lasting than paint and varnish; it is finer, more beautiful and more economical to apply in factory production.

Duco was first adopted by Oakland, and immediately thereafter by the rest of the General Motors cars.

Buyers of General Motors cars have profited by the development of this finer, more enduring finish. Their cars wear well longer.

THIRD OF RAILWAYS' PASSENGER TRAFFIC LOST TO MOTOR CAR

In 1920 Railroads Carried 1,270,000,000 and in 1925 887,000,000 Persons.

CARRIERS BEING USED FOR LONG DISTANCES

Average Trip Was 33 Miles in 1908, but Last Year Was 40½ Miles.

By WILLIAM P. HELM, JR.

The present highway system of the United States, which hardly existed save for dirt and poorly maintained macadam roads fifteen years ago, has lately been called upon to carry the load of three-fourths of all the passenger traffic of the country, a survey of the Federal bureau of public roads discloses, and annually the load increases. At the moment, the automobile has pushed railroad passenger traffic back to its level of 1908.

Within five years, or between 1920 and 1925, the railroads lost nearly one-third of their passengers, due almost wholly to the automobile, the survey indicates. In 1920 the railroads carried 1,270,000,000 passengers; in 1925 the number of passengers had dropped to 887,000,000. To find a comparable figure one must go back to 1908, when the railroads carried 890,000,000 persons on their passenger trains.

Thus 400,000,000 trips were diverted during the five-year period from the railroad trains to passenger automobiles. This does not make any allowance for natural growth in passenger traffic, which would have been a factor had there been no motor cars. With that factor included, probably 500,000,000 separate excursions were made by motor car last year that otherwise would have been made by train.

Henry R. Trumbower, one of the economists on the staff of the bureau of public roads, has analyzed the growth of passenger automobile mileage in a way that every one can understand. Mr. Trumbower says:

"The highways of the country have become, in a sense, the primary passenger carrier transportation agency and the steam railroads still remain the principal freight carriers. The 17,597,702 passenger motor vehicles in 1925, based upon an average capacity of four persons per car, represent a total passenger carrying capacity of 70,390,808 persons.

"More than half of the country's population can be carried at one and the same time by the existing number of passenger automobiles.

"If we assume that each of these passenger cars is operated an average of 5,000 miles and year and that 2½ is the average number of passengers carried per car, we arrive at a total automobile passenger mileage of 219,971,272,000 miles.

Traffic Heaviest in Streets

"A large part of this passenger mileage is produced wholly over city and town streets. Facts have not yet been developed which show accurately what proportion of this estimated passenger mileage is produced on rural highways and what part is to be credited to city streets. An estimate that one-half of the total passenger car mileage is found on the rural highways appears, however, to be conservative from every point of view.

"If we make this apportionment we arrive at a figure of 109,985,636,000 passenger miles as the annual passenger mileage carried by the highways of the country. In 1925 it was reported to the Interstate Commerce Commission that the total passenger mileage of Class 1 railroads amounted to 35,963,862,000 passenger miles. It is, therefore, safe to estimate that automobiles of the country carry approximately three times as many passengers one mile over the rural highways as the steam railroads carry.

Mileage of Electric Roads.

"The electric railroads are said to produce about 40,000,000,000 passenger miles. When these are added to the passenger mileage of the steam railroads, we get a total of 75,963,862,000 passenger miles as against a total of 219,971,272,000 passenger miles produced by automobiles over both city streets and rural highways. This demonstrates clearly that the automobile is our principal passenger carrier."

It demonstsrates, too, if Mr. Trumbower's 50-50 division of rural and city traffic is correct, that almost three times as many persons travel by automobiles in the city as travel by trolley. Or, rather, that the mileage of persons traveling by automobile is three times that of persons traveling by trolley.

Another factor in the situation is the length of the ride. More and more the railroads are coming to be utilized for transportation over a lengthening distance. In 1908, the average length of trip was about 33 miles. By 1920, it had lengthened to more than 37 miles and last year it was 40½ miles. Passengers traveling a short distance, these figures show unmistakably, were using other means than railroads. Obviously, they were utilizing the motor car.

320,000 Passengers a Mile.

Carrying Mr. Trumbower's estimate one step further, a calculation shows that, on the average, 320,000 passenger automobiles pass, during the course of a year, over every mile of roadbed in the United States, including the dirt roads. This figure, it should be remembered, is an average. It is lower, of course, in rural districts where the roads are poor, and higher, by far, in congested areas. As an average of all roads, however, it means that year in and year out, about 876 automobiles pass daily over every mile of road.

The figures include the sand clay roads of remote sections and the boulevards of the thickly settled coast lines. They indicate the average load and show the burden of our present highway system, three-fourths of which is simply dirt, part of which has been graded a bit and some of which has been drained after a fashion.

It is simply a question of time, some experts believe, when the inadequateness of the system will be clearly demonstrated.

GOVERNMENT HALTS ATTEMPT TO LINK DAUGHERTY IN PLOT

his feet and moved that the jury be dismissed because, he alleged, Buckner had acted in a manner prejudicial to a fair trial, the former Attorney General sat unmoved. Miller, whose wife has sat near him during the trial, followed the proceedings closely.

The motion to dismiss the jury followed the reading, by Buckner, of a letter Merton wrote to John Foster Dulles, New York lawyer, in November, 1920. Waving the letter before the jury, Buckner asserted that the idea of showing an oral transfer of the shares of the American Metal Co. to the Societe Suisse had originated in information Dulles wrote in reply. Prior to that, Buckner charged, there never had been a mention made of this oral transfer.

"By his gesture, by his manner of quoting dramatically, by the waving of the letter he holds in his hand," Steuer said, "Buckner makes it impossible for these defendants to have a fair trial. I move that the jury be dismissed."

The Motion Is Denied.

"I fear," Judge Mack observed, "that you attach too much importance to Mr. Buckner's histrionic ability. Motion denied."

As Buckner, who has been charged by defense attorneys with attempts to impeach and attack the credibility of his own witness, tried to procure admission of exhibits, he found the defense attorneys defending the government witness.

Buckner's attack on the testimony of Merton in cross-examination centered about the oral transfer by him and his brother in 1916—a few days before America declared war on Germany—of shares of the American Metal Co. to the Societe Suisse under terms of a reputed obligation assumed by his father in 1910 and 1912.

Buckner alleged that this obligation was a myth, concocted for the purpose of establishing a motive for the transfer of the shares that antedated the war. But Merton, giving long explanations of the events leading up to the transfer and the relations of the Merton family to the various concerns in which it had interest, stood by his previous statements. He reasserted he believed at the time he made the claims that they were valid and that he still believes them valid.

Felt They Were Weak.

Merton said that when he came to America to make the claims he felt them to be weak because of the oral transfer, but he learned, he said, the claim could be made either on the basis of ownership or debt, and this, he felt, strengthened his claim.

The transaction, as Merton saw it, was simple; the Merton family had pledged the shares of the American Metal Co. it owned, and if it had had these shares they would have been turned over to the Societe Suisse. As soon as they were obtained, Merton said, they were given to Societe Suisse, minus the fees of $441,000, he paid King and the $250,000 commission he himself received.

Buckner then began an inquiry into the disposition of the remainder of the $7,000,000, his questions revealing it was his purpose to show that the money was not actually now in the hands of the Societe Suisse, but was in the hands of the Merton family and the German shareholders of the two German companies.

First Question Objected To.

Under re direct examination, Mr. Buckner questioned Merton about his authorization as agent for the Societe Suise Pour Valeurs de Metaux.

Buckner's first question brought defense attorneys to their feet to make objections. Legal tilt followed legal tilt for half an hour with various degrees of success.

Buckner then attempted to introduce as government exhibits the letters written by Merton to Mr. Dulles, and the motion to discharge the jury followed.

In answer to a question by Mr. Buckner concerning the late John T. King, former Republican national committeeman from Connecticut, Merton said he did not come here with the idea of finding "a clever politician." Mr. King was also indicated, but died shortly afterward.

Merton said that he pictured America as a nation much different than England, France or others of the allies. "I did not think America exactly friendly," he said, "but I certainly knew they would be more decent than the others."

Although he felt his case to be weak, Merton said he also felt that America had no desire to seize private property or to impound it without just and sufficient cause.

Mind Split by Two Ideas.

Merton said his mind was "split" by two ideas. One was that the claim could be collected by showing that the oral transfer was legal. This was an ownership claim. The other idea was to show that although the Metallresellschaft owned shares of the stock of the Societe Suisse, that company was indebted to the Societe Suisse for the amount of the shares of the American Metal Co., which had been offered as a guaranty. The guaranty was made to prevent the Societe Suisse and its adjunct institutions, the Swiss Bank, from going into bankruptcy. This was a debt claim.

In any case, Merton said, it was not his intention to reveal the relation of the Metallgesellschaft until necessary. He said he felt that a revelation of this relation would prejudice his claims.

After conversations with G. R. Williams, first assistant to Miller, who was then alien property custodian, Merton said he learned that the claim would be made on the ownership basis and that it eventually was made and paid on this basis.

Court adjourned until tomorrow with Buckner engaged in an attempt to prove through Merton that the $7,000,000 refunded through Daugherty and Miller was far in excess of even the "alleged indebtedness" of the German companies to the Societe Suisse.

Merton Loss Scaled Down.

Merton, who had testified that his Swiss corporation had lost $7,000,000 from 1916 to 1921 through depreciation of the German mark, today under Buckner's questioning scaled down the estimated loss to $330,000. This loss he had testified made it necessary for his family to transfer to the Swiss company $7,000,000 worth of American Metal Co. stock, in accordance with a previous guarantee to back the Swiss company.

Merton's scaling down of the figure was said to support the government's contention that the American Metal stock should never have been returned. The defense contended it was really the property of the neutral Swiss company because of the guarantee.

1,000,000 Miles Flown; One Death.

More than 1,000,000 miles have been flown on scheduled operations over the model airways of the army since their inception in 1922, with only one fatality, the War Department announced yesterday. This distance is equal to 48 times around the world.

NAVAL BOARD TO REPORT MONDAY ON PLANE CRASH

Investigators Will Determine Condition of Ship Norton Flew to Death.

TAIL DEFECTS CHARGED

A board of investigation now in session at Anacostia naval air station will report Monday to Rear Admiral Benjamin Hutchison, commandant of the Washington navy yard, its opinion regarding the condition of the plane in which Lieut. Harmon J. Norton, marine corps, met his death off Hains point Monday.

Rear Admiral Hutchison will forward the report to Rear Admiral E. H. Campbell, judge advocate general, for review, and it will then be presented to Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, who will announce the finding.

The board of investigation is composed of Lieut. Comdr. D. C. Watson, executive officer; Lieut. W. G. Tomlinson, a test pilot, and Lieut. C. D. Palmer, radio officer, all of the Anacostia station. A board of inquest convening yesterday reported that Lieut. Norton's death was immediate and in line of duty. It was composed of Lieuts. C. R. Henderson and G. T. Owen, of Anacostia, and Lieut. Russell I. Craig, medical corps, Washington navy yard.

Tail defects in Lieut. Norton's plane are held responsible for the crash, according to prevailing unofficial opinion. Witnesses declare that he worked hard to right the plane as it fell, due to circumstances over which it is believed, he had no control. The structure of the plane prevented the use of a parachute. The plane was pronounced sound when it left the naval aircraft factory at Philadelphia, and was declared airworthy when Lieut. G. T. Cuddihy made his record speed flight in it last week.

It was built in 1923 and Lieut. A. J. Williams made 243.67 miles an hour in it in the St. Louis Pulitzer race of 1924. Whether strain and age had weakened the plane is to be determined, this feature recalling testimony precipitating the Col. William Mitchell court-martial, that use of army and navy racing planes over a year endangered them. The testimony met with disagreement, however.

After Lieut. Williams flew the plane it is reported to have dived from high altitudes ranging from 4,000 to 9,000 feet about 20 times.

At the request of the officer's widow, Mrs. Avis B. Norton, who is on her way here from Alabama, N. Y., Lieut. Norton will be buried in Arlington National cemetery. Funeral arrangements will be made on her arrival.

$3,000,000 Naval Torpedoes Suit Filed

(By the Associated Press.)

An effort to recover $3,000,000 from the government as damages was begun in the United States Court of Claims yesterday by the E. W. Bliss Co., of Delaware, makers of naval torpedoes.

The company asserted that in 1920 Franklin D. Roosevelt, as Acting Secretary of the Navy, bound the navy to buy from it a certain number of steam torpedoes, but that the Navy Department has refused since that time to place the orders. In 1925, the company's petition said, Secretary Wilbur held that the department should not recognize the claim that the government was required to buy a certain number of torpedoes annually.

RUTH AND PETER

By ACHMED ABDULLAH

(Copyright, 1926, Thompson Feature Service, Inc.)

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

Ruth Welles, young, pretty and very ambitious, secures a position as secretary to Peter Barton, a distinguished New York lawyer. She is sharing an apartment with two sisters, Edna and Hattie Mathews, and Hattie and Ruth are taking a night school course in law. Maisie Andrews, formerly occupied the apartment with the girls but is now living alone, although Riccardo Martinez, an unscrupulous adventurer, has the key to her new apartment. Presently Edna marries Harry Davis, a rejected suitor of Ruth's. Meanwhile, Ruth and Barton, after struggling against their feeling for some time, admit their love for each other and are married in spite of the disapproval of his mother and Nelda, his sister, who wished him to marry a certain little French countess. Barton then engages Hattie as his secretary and Ruth is dismayed to find that now she has become his wife he no longer is willing to share his business interests with her. About this time she introduces Nelda to Maisie as the result of an accidental meeting, and through Maisie Nelda meets Martinez. He immediately engages in a flirtation with her, hoping to obtain blackmail by compromising her. Maisie is furiously jealous and after many quarrels with Martinez is, one day, found murdered, but Martinez is able to prove an alibi. While this is taking place Ruth is growing more and more jealous, first of Hattie, because as Barton's secretary she shares his business affairs, and second of Annette de Lorraine, the little French countess, who is Barton's client. Hattie resigns from her position as secretary and she and Ruth open a law office together. Barton is bitterly opposed to it and succeeds in ruining their business. After this failure Hattie returns to Barton's employ and Ruth goes South with Nelda to recover from a nervous breakdown. There they meet Martinez, who now calls himself Del Santa Cruz, and he renews his flirtation with Nelda. Ruth distrusts him deeply, suspecting him of Maisie's murder. At length he demands money from Nelda threatening to ruin her reputation unless she complies.

CHAPTER XXVII—(Continued).

SHE succeeded. And yet she did not succeed entirely. It was always a struggle in him between his vanity, his conceit—so many women had fed it—and his shrewd, vulpine brain.

Did she mean it? Did she mean those soft, gliding, promising glances?

Was she playing a game?

He could not solve the problem. It disturbed him. He made up his mind to solve it, one way or another.

After all, he was in no special hurry. His alibi in the murder case was water-tight. He had been a fool to even consider rushing off. There was no reason to be panic-stricken. Nor would he gain anything by following Nelda to New York.

Nelda, doubtless, by this time was trying to raise money. And he had his "evidence;" the letters, his friend's deposition, safely put away.

Meanwhile he would play about with Ruth.

There, too, he could not lose either way. If she meant what her looks and smiles promised—well and good! If she did not, he would find out her game, whatever it was.

He was beginning to think that, perhaps, she had no game to play. He could not credit the girl he had known in the Commerce street flat, the girl who had been a stenographer, then a private secretary, with enough brains to have a game that he himself could not see through.

No woman, as yet, had been clever enough to fool him. He made up his mind—almost—that Ruth was telling the truth; that she had disliked him; disliked him no more; was in fact beginning to like him very, very much; that all these stories and counter stories between her and Nelda were just the bickerings of two jealous, bored women.

Of course, his money was running out. But he had not yet tried to borrow at Palm Beach. So his bill at the hotel could take care of itself for a short time. His financial reputation was good.

On the other hand, while not exactly worried yet about actual cash, the approaching lack of it—there were past, bitter experiences—always made him feel nervous and jumpy.

Once, without meaning to, he almost gave himself away in that respect. He did not know that he had; did not know what a shrewd observer, what a shrewd psychologist, Ruth Barton was.

They were lunching together. The bill was presented. Usually he signed it with a careless gesture. Today he scanned the total; frowned.

And Ruth hid a smile.

That same afternoon, on the beach, she drew his attention to a woman who for some time had been the talk of Palm Beach. She was dressed for her daily swim in a high-necked, short-skirted, long-sleeved suit, her maid walking beside her and holding a great Japanese parasol over her bright-capped head.

At the very brink of the sea the woman stopped her stately progress, sure that all idle eyes were on her. She unfastened her suit at the throat and hauled forth literally a quart of strung pearls. She handed them to her maid, who put the pearls in a leather case, sat down on the beach and waited for her mistress to finish her swim.

"Lovely pearls!" commented Ruth.

"Quite. You, too, have pearls," he reminded her.

"None like those."

"Mr. Barton will buy you more."

"Oh—I hope not!"

"Why not?"

"I—I am afraid of——"

"Of what, Ruth?"

"You see—I am so extravagant! I don't like to have valuable things about me!"

He stared at her.

He became very thoughtful.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

"Business Is Business."

"YES," Ruth repeated with a little sigh. "I am extravagant. Peter knows it—and so——"

"So he won't——?"

"He won't give me cash—at least not too much. Or too valuable jewels. Just pays my bills."

There was something in her voice almost like an appeal. Martinez wondered. He decided to sound her out. Was she hard up for cash? It would mean a new angle to the situation—an altogether unexpected angle which might be tremendously value to him. Why—he might use her as an ally if——

"I've always thought," he said, after a while, "that every woman should have an income independent from her husband's bounty. It is this eternal running to her husband for every cent that puts married women into the slave class. Why—it's positively humiliating! Chiefly for a woman like yourself—who has at one time earned her own living!"

Ruth suppressed a smile. She felt that her remark had drawn him on. She was a very clever woman. She knew that the greatest wisdom for a woman is to be a "good listener" when man speaks; and that the second greatest wisdom is to flatter him—to flatter him, not too obviously, therefore not about the attributes which he knows he possesses, such as charm and good looks in Martinez's case, but about the attributes to which people less seldom refer.

She did so.

RUNNING FROM HAY FEVER.

FOR those hay fever sufferers who have not been desensitized, and who find themselves in the midst of trouble, the best plan is to run. Until now, running has been a blind procedure. There was no certainty that the runner would find relief in his supposed harbor of safety. Sometimes he jumped from the frying pan into the fire. It is possible now to put the running game on a scientific basis. Skin tests can be made to show which pollens are a man's nemesis. Even when this method of investigation has not been used a man can learn from his local health department or State health department which two or three pollens are responsible for 95 per cent, of the hay fever in a given month in a given place. The probability is that the inquirer's enemy is in that list. The same source of information can generally tell the inquirer which sections of the country are free from his enemy. Selection between Thousand islands, Mackinac, the Rocky mountain resorts, the Pacific coast, Canada, the mountains, and the seaside resorts can be made with some likelihood of finding relief.

There are some possibilities of relief for those who have not been desensitized beforehand and who can not run away.

Dr. Grafton Tyler Brown has had considerable success in treating this group of people at home. He advises against large and repeated use of such drugs as aspirin and quinine. He has found they do no good and they may do considerable harm. As a rule sprays and washes do harm, he says. Cocaine is not to be used. The relief it gives is most transient, and the danger of the cocaine habit is great. Sprays of menthol in oils he has found to do more harm than good. Adrenalin, or epinephrin, gives momentary relief, but is of no real benefit.

A simple abolene spray may help a little by coating the membranes of the nose and in that way protecting them a little. In all probability the use of various forms of calcium salts internally for a long time is of service. Dr. Brown writes of calcium chloride. Some other calcium salts are less objectionable to the stomach.

When it comes to vaccination with pollens during the attack, physicians are disagreed. Many of them think they do no good. Dr. Brown has found these pollen vaccines given during the attack of great benefit. He says part of this success has been because of the way pollen vaccination was done.

Dr. Scheppegrell advises the use of bacterial vaccines during the hay fever attacks. Dr. Brown does not agree with Dr. Scheppegrell, except in those cases where a bacterial asthma complicates a true hay fever and those cases of supposed true hay fever which are bacterial asthmas instead.

BABY HAS ASTHMA.

H. E. W. writes: A baby 9 months old suffers with bronchial asthma. From birth until 5 months old was kept very closely in an apartment and did a lot of crying. Would cry until he was hoarse. Did that cause the trouble? Or what is the cause of a child that age having such a disease?

REPLY.

Crying did not cause the trouble. Some children get asthma from playing with cats or dogs, or other pets. Some, from feather pillows. Some have it as the result of chronic bronchitis.

Do any of these statements suggest changes that you might make, or examinations that your might have made?

WIVES OF TOMORROW

By FRANCES M'DONALD

A Girl With Sense.

DEAR MISS McDONALD—I am a young fellow, a little over 20 years of age. I have been going with a very fine girl, who is 19 years of age. We have been going together for about a year and eight months. I think the world of her. There is nothing I would not do for her. Until the last month we got along fine. She seemed to love me very much, for she promised to marry me in a short time.

But suddenly she got the idea that she should be a nurse, and every since then she has treated me as if I had just gone out with her for the first time. She admitted she still likes me, but is afraid of something, I know not what. She has told me not to call on her.

I am sure there is no other fellows that she cares for. She has never refused to go out with me. I can not see why she will not get married instead of starting in being a nurse.

What should I do?

Please advise me as soon as possible, for I am undecided what to do, or what to think of her treatment of me. Is being a nurse more important than being a wife to her? R. W. S.

You are a boy of 20—too young to be seriously considering marriage. The girl is wise and sensible to be thinking of preparing herself for life by taking a nursing course. The mere fact of marrying is not an insurance against financial stress subsequent to that act. And no woman today should go into matrimony helpless—especially if she is marrying the sort of man who is ready to plunge at 20 into life contract.

You know somebody in the family has to have common sense—and in your case it is the girl. So just abide by her decision, which is a wise one, and by the time you are old enough to marry, the girl will be equipped to start life with confidence, knowing that should any misfortune overtake you, she is in a position to carry on. You know only 10 per cent of all separations are due to infidelity—and 25 per cent are due to lack of funds to finance the only partnership people ever attempt without capital on either side. Love is optimism, but even such optimism sometimes fails to impress the landlord and the butcher.

Bide your time, boy, and see love through—just as this very sane girl intends to do.

Conduct and Common Sense

By ANNE SINGLETON.

WHAT PRICE SOCIETY?

PEOPLE who judge society from the outside seem to have an idea that money and idleness make for eligible membership. Nothing could be falser. There is a terrible stratum, whose husbands are money makers and nothing else, whose wives live in apartment hotels, that they may not be bothered with housekeeping, whose whole ambition consists in having the most expensive restaurant food, the most extravagant restaurant dresses, the most costly jeweler's jewels; seats at the highest-price plays, tables at the even higher-priced cabarets and dancing clubs, and attendance (when jaded) at the most celebrated beauty parlors, barber shops and Turkish baths.

I grant you that there is a large society like that, but it is not real society. It is a common imitation. It has nothing to be social with but dollars spent in different ways. Real society has houses—fewer than it used to have in cities, but still, houses. It has family background. It has responsibilities. It has cultivated tastes. It has resources. It has a thousand interests. The part of it which the newspapers report at seaside resorts, at the first night of the opera in town, at any of the important functions of the season anywhere, is reported when it happens to be caught at the height of its bubbling, foaming moments. It sparkles better—and contrary to most outsiders' notions — more easily than "near-society," because underneath it's a sound brew not because it's a frothy mixture. Heaviness is no test of worth, and a great many people who pride themselves upon taking life with a rather sour seriousness and would raise reproving eyebrows at the supposed frivolity of fashionable life, have no idea that that life is like every other life except led with better taste and braver hearts. I know people of all kinds, and I find fashion more sincerely and consistently shouldering its responsibilities toward the community than are most of its critics. It has more charities dependent upon it, it supports more arts and crafts (because it understands and appreciates them better), it is a more liberal patron of sports than the would-be fashionable who pretend to imitate it or the would-not be fashionable who condemn it.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE TRICKSTERS.

Joe was slick, with many a trick
He trimmed the passer-by.
Whene'er he could, for coal and wood
He put his prices high.
And if he thought you wouldn't look
A little off the weight he took.

Joe used to harp on methods sharp
"Let buyers all beware!"
He'd often say, "Whenever they Come selling I take care.
If I get cheated in the game
I only have myself to blame."

Joe knew a lot, but he forgot
That buyers do beware,
That life is long, and those you wrong
Soon learn to trade elsewhere.
That every shady dollar made
Will cost you ten in future trade.

Joe tricked a few as smart men do.
And chuckled as they will.
But came the day to Joe's dismay
When empty was his till.
He watched his trade to others go.
The buyers had outsmarted Joe.

Boy, when you meet a chance to cheat
Refuse that way to gain.
The trickster's art is never smart,
It always ends in pain.
The cunning merchants always fail
The cleverest crooks are all in jail.

Jenny's New Balloon Sleeve Frock

With the Smart Velvet Trim and the New Tiered Skirt!

IT is black, of course, a very subtle frock that so cleverly combines the three most important style trends of the season—the very smart blouse back, velvet trim and the elaborated sleeve—and it has that very intriguing air of femininity, the newest fashion note. Crepe du Jours interprets this frock, and the new erect pile velvet trims it. 79.50

Alpine Parish Council Regulates Dresses

Geneva, Sept. 14 (By A. P.) The parish council of the Alpine village of Blatten, in the Loetschental valley has issued a ukase regarding women's dress, which should satisfy the most rabid puritan:

"The entire population, whether foreigners, tourists or natives, when using the roads and paths of the commune, must be dressed in such manner as to comply with the dictates of common decency.

"The breast, the upper parts of the arms and legs must be covered with material that is not transparent. Skirts and trousers must be of sufficient length to cover, at least, the knees.

"For the first offense the fine is $10, which will be double in the case of a repetition."

49th Plowing Derby To Be Held Sept. 18

Plainfield, Ill., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The real rural derby, the annual Wheatland plowing contest, in its forty-ninth renewal, is set for September 18 this year. A new class is announced, for boys under 17 in which either horses or tractors may be used.

The competition is a national affair, open to any one, and Homer Lapp, of Wheatland, is at present the titleholder. Twelve competitors were entered in the first match, in the fall of 1877, and 200 watched them carve their furrows across the field. Crowds since then have grown to as high as 15,000 and two classes for tractor-drawn plows have been added.

A clover field will be used this year to make the competition more difficult.

Every Night

Do this to keep your skin clear and pretty

By NORMA TALMADGE

(Copyrighted, 1926, by P. O. Beauty Features.)

If powder or rouge ever touches your face, do this—a simple rule that is bringing natural loveliness to thousands

MOST women these days use powder or rouge, make-up in one way or another. Yet not one woman in fifty knows how to use those accessories in safety to her skin.

Correctly used, powders, rouge and make-up will not injure. Incorrectly used, they invite a poor complexion.

Note the rule below. Try it for one week. Mark the improvement in your skin when pores are nightly relieved of their "make-up" accumulations with the soothing olive and palm lather of Palmolive in this way:

Powders, rouge and all cosmetics have a tendency to clog the pores . . . often to enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. Never let make-up stay on over night. This is all-important, a fundamental in correct skin care.

WHAT YOU MUST DO

Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly. Then repeat both washing and rinsing. Apply a touch of cold cream—that is all.

Follow these rules. Your skin will be soft and lovely. As the months roll by, you'll need fewer and fewer cosmetics.

Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or represented as of palm and olive oils, is the same as Palmolive.

BE SURE YOU GET THE REAL PALMOLIVE

Remember that before Palmolive came, women were told, "use no soap on your faces." Soaps then were judged too harsh. Palmolive is a beauty soap made for one purpose only: to safeguard your complexion. 60 years of soap study stand behind it. Millions of pretty skins prove its effectiveness beyond all doubt.

And it costs but 10c the cake — so little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain Palmolive today. Note what an amazing difference one week makes. The Palmolive Company (Del. Corp.), Chicago, Illinois.

MODISH MITZI — They'll Go to Niagara Falls — By Jay V. Jay

Dad says they should all go to Niagara Falls—they're so near. The Goofer is all for it, too. He'd like to pilot Mitzi through the Cave of the Winds. Mitzi is wondering what she will wear, which is utterly ridiculous for one who is dressed so smartly. Her new velvet hat has little ostrich feather tips on the side. Her black satin dress has the pointed and wide spread V motif. Notice the odd neck pinned with a bar pin made of three square carnelian stones. "It will be sort of fun to go to Niagara," enthusiastically comments Polly.

"But, Niagara," points out Polly is really just for newly married people and . . . ." well, the inference is plain for somehow she directs her remarks to Mitzi and the Goofer. Whether she does this just to show how effective a full, shirred sleeve is or whether she means to imply anything further we'll never know. She's none the less adorable. Her felt hat with its gay grosgrain band fits tight over her curls. "Well," replies the Goofer rising to the occasion, "I'd like people to think I was newly married to all three of you."

BETHESDA BANK OPENS NEW $60,000 BUILDING

Capital and Maryland Bankers Are Guests of Officials at Handsome Home.

PETIT GETS PROMOTION

By F. W. PATTERSON.

The new home of the Bank of Bethesda, Md., which was erected at a cost of approximately $60,000, was opened to the public yesterday, and 3,000 visitors enjoyed the hospitality of the bank officials throughout the day and evening. Among them were prominent Washington and Maryland bank officials, depositors and residents of that thriving community.

The handsome building, which is of stone construction, and equipped with every modern banking facility, occupies a site at the intersection of the Rockville and Georgetown pikes, and architecturally is in keeping with the high building standards of the community it serves.

The Bank of Bethesda was organized in 1919 with a capital of $25,000, but this amount was found insufficient under the steady growth of the institution, and three years later the capital was raised to $50,000, which amount was increased to $100,000 in January of this year. Opening its doors December 1, 1919, the day closed with deposits totaling $25,000, and each year since then has seen this item mount until today the bank boasts deposits of approximately $500,000, and total assets of more than $550,000.

Officers of the bank, all of whom are active in the direction of its affairs, are: Walter R. Tuckerman, president; George P. Sacks, vice president; S. Walter Bogley, cashier; Francis C. Wallace, secretary. The board of directors is composed of the officers and the following: Edward P. Abbe, L. W. Beall, William H. Broadhurst, E. E. Dillinger, Floyd E. Davis, Vernon M. Dorsey, Jed Gittings, James E. Ellis, Edwin H. Etz, F. E. Farrington, Thomas Hampton, J. Frederick Imirie, Lewis Jeiser, H. Latane Lewis, M. Wilson Offutt, Millard E. Peake, Walter E. Perry, Charles S. Robb, E. C. Schroeder, Paul Sleman, Frank S. Ward, B. Peyton Whalen and Frank Wilson.

Petit Is Promoted.

Fernand Petit, manager of the Mortgage Bond & Guaranty Co., has been elected vice president and secretary of the company. Mr. Petit, who was cashier of the Citizens Savings Bank at the time of its purchase by the Merchants Bank & Trust Co., became a vice president of the latter institution and chairman of its auditing committee following the merger, both of which positions he now occupies. He became manager of the Mortgage Bond & Guaranty Co., several months ago, and the action of the directors in making him a company officer is in recognition of his activities in the advancement of the company.

The official roster of the company now is: Harry A. Kite, president; Appleton P. Clark and Hugh A. Thrift, vice presidents; Fernand Petit, vice president and secretary; Judge Daniel Thew Wright, counsel. With the officers, the directors are C. S. Taylor Burke, Clarence F. Donohue, J. S. Gruver, Frank J. Hughes, Frank P. Morse, W. O. Pierson, James H. Preston, George A. Walker, William D. West.

CURB MARKET REVIEW.

New York, Sept. 14 (By the Associated Press).—A broadening demand for stocks was noted in today's curb market, but new, soft spots cropped out in several sections of the list. Pools were again active in a number of specialties, with easier money rates looked for when the income tax payments and government financing were out of the way.

Oils showed a firmer undertone, the cut in Magnolia Crude prices being offset by private estimates of a reduction in crude output last week for the first time in over two months. Ohio Vacuum, Gulf, New York and Red Bank advanced a point or so. Tidal Osage jumped 5½ points to a new high, at 25, but canceled all but 1½ points of its gain on realizing.

Opening of the radio exposition here stimulated interest in that group of stocks. Freshman touching another new high, at 34. Baking shares showed little change. Revival of activity in Durant, which advanced over a point, featured the motor group. Dupont (new stock) was in brisk demand on the approval of the new recapitalization plan by the stockholders, jumping 5 points, to 156, and closing near the top.

American Writing Paper preferred certificates, which are being traded in on a "when issued" basis, moved up to a new high, at 34, and then eased to 32½, up 2 points net. Substantial gains also were recorded by such ordinarily inactive issues as Celotex, Metropolitan Chain Stores, Phelps Dodge and Wesson Oil certificates. Amusement shares again showed great activity, Warner Bros. B jumping over 4 points to a new high, at 65, and then cancelling all the day's gain, while Fox Theaters A was bid up over 2 points, to 26¼.

Confused price movements took place in the public utility group, American Gas & Electric, American super-power issues, Electric Bond and Share and United Gas Improvement were in demand at advancing prices. International Utilities A broke 5 points to a new low, at 25, and then rallied to 29 and United Power & Light was driven down more than 2 points, to 12½, duplicating the year's low on the announcement that the policy of declaring regular stock dividends had been discontinued.

What's Behind Your Stock

GEN. AM. TANK CAR

General American Tank Car Corporation.

The General American Tank Car Corporation was founded in 1916 and is the largest producer of tank cars in the world. The company is also an important manufacturer of freight cars of all descriptions. In addition to its manufacturing activities it owns a fleet of over 10,000 tank cars which it leases for long-term periods at fixed rentals. These cars have proved a large and consistent source of income.

This company, which is a holding organization, has reported substantial profits in every year of its existence. Net income has only once, in 1918, fallen below the million dollar mark while the record year was 1919, the figure being $2,295,555. In 1925, net income was equal to $3.43 per share as compared with $4.16 in 1924. The number of shares of common stock outstanding, however, was larger in 1925 than in 1924.

At the end of last year the company appeared to be in sound financial condition with total current assets which exceeded total current liabilities by over $9,000,000. The company is free of bank debt and the only outstanding funded debt consists of about $6,800,000 in equipment trust certificates. On its preferred stock the company has paid dividends in every year since it began business. On the common stock there have been dividend payments in every year from 1919 to date.

BOND LIST GENERALLY DRIFTS OFF UNSTEADILY

Buying Continues in Some Foreign Issues; Finnish Loan Oversubscribed.

RAIL GROUP IS ERRATIC

New York, Sept. 14 (By A. P.)—Concentration of buying power in support of a few special issues, mostly in the foreign division, failed to bolster up the rest of the bond market today and prices drifted irregularly lower. Most of the changes were trifling, although the turnover was the heaviest in several days.

Sustained buying activity in the French list, which carried a number of the government, railroad and steamship issues to the year's top prices, was attributed to operations for the account of European bankers and investors. Dutch and Swiss financial interests were credited with accumulating the bonds in anticipation of steady improvement in France's financial position.

Despite the successful offering of a new $15,000,000 6½ per cent loan for Finland, which was promptly oversubscribed, the outstanding bonds of that country were inclined to heaviness, the 7s losing nearly a point. Japanese issues were firm on indications that the new finance minister would continue to carry out the policies of his predecessor.

A rise of 1½ points in Chicago Railways 5 per cent bonds attracted unusual attention because of the offer made by a banking group to reorganize and refinance the city's transit system. On the other hand New York transit issues were depressed by statements of city officials in support of the 5 cent fare.

Price movements of railroad liens were conflicting, with the list as a whole losing ground. St. Paul issues were unsettled by the controversy over the proposed upset price on the part of opposing reorganization groups and slight recessions took place in Pere Marquette 4s, Peoria & Eastern income 4s and Iowa Central 4s. Granby 7s and Wickwire Spencer Steel 7s were the strongest issues of the industrial section.

An $18,000,000 15-year 6 per cent bond issue for the Canada Steamship Co. is scheduled for offering tomorrow at a price of 97.

WALL STREET NEWS BRIEFS

New York, Sept. 14 (By A. P.)—"The entire southwest region is due for steady improvement, where extensive stretches are undeveloped and the inhabitants are only beginning to realize what they have," said W. R. Scott, president of the Texas and Louisiana lines of the Southern Pacific company. "While you hear references to current prosperity in the southwest, I believe it more correct to regard prosperity in that section as only beginning, with the greatest possibilities remaining to be developed."

Directors of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe have authorized construction of 21 miles of second track running east and west from Amarillo, Tex., to take care of new oil developments in that section of the Panhandle. W. B. Storey, president, said the question of common dividends was not discussed at the meeting.

Good business now seems assured for the rest of 1926, in the opinion of Leonard P. Ayres, vice president of the Cleveland Trust Co., who states in the bank's business bulletin that prosperity prevails in most lines of industry; trade is going well; agricultural conditions and prospects are much better than they promised to be three months ago, and employment is general with wages high. "The normal autumn expansion of business activity is beginning, and beyond that there is in prospect the best season for holiday trade that the country has ever had."

The rubber industry generally is in a healthy state and faces a prosperous year in 1927, in the opinion of H. T. Dunn, president of Fisk Rubber Co. There is plenty of crude rubber on hand at a fair price, he said. American rubber manufacturers are doing good business abroad which is increasing, and he believed 1927 would be more than 15 per cent ahead of 1926.

James Simpson, president of Marshall Field & Co., considers the outlook for fall is splendid, with record-breaking business in prospect.

A quarterly dividend of $6 a share declared today by the Bank of New York & Trust Co., placed the stock on an annual basis of $24 a share. Previous distributions had been $5 quarterly and an extra of one dollar.

Eastern Rolling Mills declared an extra dividend of 12½ cents a share on the common stock in addition to the regular quarterly of 37 cents, both payable October 1 to stock of record September 15.

International Paper Co. has completed the purchase of 110,000 acres of short-leaf pine timber land in Louisiana for the account of its wholly-owned subsidiary, the Bastrop Pulp & Paper Co., whose mill capacity is being doubled from 70 tons of sulphate pulp and 50 tons of kraft paper daily.

General Asphalt Co. announced today it could throw no light on rumors involving alleged segregation of its petroleum holdings and interests in Venezuela and Trinidad. To avoid competitive drilling in Trinidad along boundaries of small areas of freehold land belonging to the company, it was explained, and of other adjacent areas, oil rights to which are held by General Asphalt under a crown lease, the company has agreed to sublease a part of the oil rights acquired to interests owning lands adjoining the area described.

Production of copper by smelters in the United States for the eight months this year amounted to 1,274,318,000 pounds against 1,259,990,000 pounds in the same period of 1925.

Traffic receipts on all French railroads from January 1 to August 12 show an increase of 1,331,774,000 francs over the same period of 1925, the Bankers Trust Co. of New York is informed by its French information service.

Fred W. Sargent, president of the Chicago & North Western railway said today he expected an upward revision of class rates in the Western trunk line territory within the next six months which would have material effect on the road's earnings.

Sales of National Tea Co. for the eight months of 1926 rose to $34,641,427, from $30,083,464 a year ago.

Trinidad Oil Fields, Inc., has been formed by American interests with British associates and has taken over about 27,000 acres of oil properties on the island of Trinidad, British West Indies. William Warfield, formerly manager of the foreign producing department of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey, is president, and Frank Seanans, vice president of General Asphalt Co., and Harry Arthur, vice president of American International Corporations, are two of the four directors. Percy A. Rockefeller is expected to join the board.

BOBBY JONES MEDALIST, MATCH PLAY DUE TODAY; CARL MAYS HURLS REDS INTO LEAD AS CARDS IDLE

Pitcher Seeks Duty; Beats Dodgers

Submarine Ball Star Volunteers to Hurl Out of Turn.

McGraw Is Hit Hard; Critz Scores Run After Double.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The Reds defeated Brooklyn, 5 to 1 today, and moved into the league leadership while St. Louis was idle. Carl Mays won his nineteenth game of the season after volunteering his services to Manager Hendricks. The Reds eased into first place with a half-game margin over the Cardinals.

Twelve hits off McGraw, the Robins' reliance, gave the Reds their tallies. Brooklyn could do little against the underslung delivery of Mays, hitting for but five scattered safeties.

Cincinnati's offensive centered about Walker, Roush and Critz, with Critz's fielding a feature. The visitors took the lead in the second inning, scoring once on a double by Critz, who reached third on Wheat's fumble, and came in on an infield out. The Robins tied it in their half when Marriott singled and went to second on Ford's low

Pittenger, Louisville Star, Is Sold to Reds

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Clark Pittenger, Louisville American association star shortstop, yesterday was sold conditionally to the Cincinnati National league club. Pittenger has batted consistently around the .300 mark all season, and has been the steadying factor in the Louisville drive for another pennant. Pittenger came to the locals from the Chicago Cubs during the winter.

Nats to Open At Detroit Today

Johnson and Murray Slated to Hurl in Double Header.

Team Now in Slump; New Haven Pitcher Joins Squad.

By FRANK H. YOUNG.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 14.—Well, our Nats didn't lose today, and that's something. As a matter of fact, Manager Harris claims that his charges now are ridden of all the bad baseball in their systems and may be looked for to show their real merit from now on until the bell rings down the 1926 curtain, but whether he is right or not will not be known for a few days. Far be it from the writer to harp on sad occurrences of the past, but it must be admitted that Bucky's reasoning is logical, for it is doubtful if these "systems" referred to are large enough to hold much more poor work.

The Nationals looked like a bunch of second raters in the entire set with the Indians, and the odd thing about it is that no one can satisfactorily explain just why. It's simply a repetition of what every team is up against at one time or another during a long diamond campaign.

When the Nats hit Cleveland they had won ten straight games, and had resembled the outfit which copped two American league pennants and a world's title. Then old "Joe Slump," who has a wallop like Jack Dempsey, hit them and they took the count of four. They are resting up today and hope for a change of luck from now on.

PRACTICALLY the same team rose to great heigts when necessary, in 1924 and 1925, and the same situation faces them here, for wheth-

Rosenberg Suspended, Bantam Crown Given Bud Taylor in Illinois

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The Illinois Athletic commission today disqualified and suspended for life Charley (Phil) Rosenberg, of New York, the bantamweight champion of the world, and handed his crown to Bud Taylor, of Terre Haute, Ind., his challenger for the title bout scheduled here Thursday night. The bout is off.

Suspended with Rosenberg were Harry Segal, his manager, and all the boxers who have trained with him for the final match.

The commission's formal notice of expulsion said that the action was demanded "in order to protect boxing."

The suspensions were made, the commission said, because Segal and Rosenberg ignored rules pertaining to forfeits, "after our commission was considerate enough to grant several days of grace, and further because of the injection of political and other influence pertaining to our appointment of a referee."

GIANTS LOSE TO KREMER, 5 TO 0

Hurler Allows 3 Hits in 18th Victory of Season.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The world's champions played championship ball today, shutting out New York 5 to 0. Ray Kremer made it his eighteenth win of the season, allowing no hits until the seventh when Frisch beat out a slow one to Grantham.

The victory gained ground for McKechnie's team in the pennant race, due to the idleness of St. Louis. It was Pittsburgh's third win from the Giants in four games played in the series.

Hugh McQuillan, opening ceremonies for New York, took a fancy to the Pirate bats which landed on him and on Kent Greenfield who relieved him in the first inning for five hits and four runs. Waner's homer in the second concluded the scoring for the day.

Greenfield settled down and pitched steady ball until the ninth when his duties were taken over by Poetz, a new man from Portsmouth, Va. Only three Giants hit Kremer, Frisch succeeding twice.

INJUNCTION CALLED NIL AS BOUT PLANS PROGRESS SMOOTHLY

Dempsey to Try Out Certain Attack in Secret.

Normile Is Unmoved by Attempts to Restrain Bout.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—After a day of rest from the dreaded training grind, Jack Dempsey will resume work tomorrow in semiprivacy, with 100 or more newspaper correspondents and camera men as the only spectators.

The gates of the Greyhound racing track, where the world's heavyweight champion is putting on the finishing touches, will be closed to the general public tomorrow and Thursday, the champion will work out before the correspondents. He will declare another holiday on Friday and on Saturday will start the process of tuning up.

Dempsey says that by working in privacy, he can toss aside all caution or restraint without regard to the wishes of the spectators. He intends to try out certain styles of attack against the ablest of his sparring partners—Tommy Loughran, Big Bill Tate and Martin Burke.

HE does not care to be criticized for punishing them or instructing them to cut loose with their heaviest blows so he can determine himself how he will stand up under them.

The news that Judge Clinton H. Given, in Indianapolis, had granted an injunction to the Coliseum Club of Chicago, restraining Dempsey from fighting Gene Tunney in Philadelphia was received by the champion with a grin.

Dempsey and his business representative, Gene Normile, were inclined to laugh it off.

"What's another injunction to us?" Dempsey said. "We've been getting them for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Another court tangle means no more to me than another flivver does to Henry Ford."

Normile said he has been assured by Arthur F. Driscoll, a New York attorney representing Dempsey and himself, that he would file an immediate appeal and this action would stay all proceedings until the appeal is settled.

"Neither Dempsey nor I are a bit worried," Normile added. "We have been assured the fight with Tunney will come off as scheduled. We are going ahead as if nothing had happened."

Challenger Spends Holiday On Road, Links and Books

Stroudsburg, Pa., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Gene Tunney today enjoyed one of the most complete holidays he has fitted into his program since he began training for his championship bout with Jack Dempsey. The day was one of almost 100 per cent rest. He did a little less than 8 miles of road work in the forenoon and called it a day.

Early in the afternoon the chal-

Veterinarian Accused In Captain Hal's Death

Chicago, Sept. 14 (By A. P.). A warrant was issued today for the arrest of G. C. McIntosh, Louisville, Ky., veterinarian, whom the State department of registration and education accused of contributing to the death of the $100,000 racehorse, Captain Hal, by unlicensed treatment.

Captain Hal, owned by a syndicate of tobacco clerks at Louisville, died in his stall at the new Lincoln Fields track last week.

Pennsylvania Attorney General Demurs at Indiana Order.

Rickard Is Ready to Take Legal Action in Any Event.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Arrangements for the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight championship in the Sesquicentennial stadium next week went forward today without interruption.

The injunction issued by the Indiana court last night restraining Jack Dempsey, the world's champion, from fighting before he carries out the contract of the Chicago Coliseum club to meet Harry Wills, is not effective in Pennsylvania unless action is taken in this State, said Attorney General George W. Woodruff today.

"It is merely a matter of news in the Pennsylvania courts; it has no legal effect," Mr. Woodruff said.

To be on the safe side in the event legal action is taken here, Tex Rickard today arranged a conference with Mayor Kendrick for tomorrow at which steps will be taken to oppose any move to stop the bout. The city's legal adviser will be present.

RICKARD pointed out today the officers of the Chicago Coliseum club would have to put up a bond of at least $3,000,000 as a guarantee against loss to the defendants if a suit were brought here.

The gate receipts, it has been estimated, will exceed $1,500,000, and the State requires a bond of double the amount of possible loss in the event the suit were thrown out of court and there was a financial loss.

"They haven't money enough to pay the premium on such a bond," said Rickard, "and I doubt whether the Coliseum club will attempt to press the case in this State."

Edwin M. Abbott, counsel for the Sesquicentennial association, concurred in the opinion of the attorney general that the Indiana decision was not effective in Pennsylvania.

Tex Rickard said today, with the fight only nine days off, the "record gate" of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight is on the verge of being passed. He said the sale of tickets thus far has brought in more than $1,400,000 cash. "I am not in the least doubtful that the fight will be a complete sell out and that the Dempsey-Carpentier record will be broken by about $100,000."

Phillies Beat Cubs, 5-4; Hack Wilson Is Injured

Philadelphia, Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—The Phillies today took the final game they will play with the Chicago Cubs this season, by a score of 5 to 4. "Hack" Wilson, star outfielder and leading home-run hitter of the National league, sustained a possible fracture of the mastoid bone when Carlson hit him behind the left ear with a pitched ball in the sixth inning.

DRAKO'S SUB BEATEN BY SWEENEY

Mitchell Outpointed in Feature; 3 Other Substitution.

By BILL WALTER.

LOCAL ring fans got an even break in substitutions last night at Kenilworth when two of the four "last-minute" performers came through in good style, not only making a real fight of it, but in one case the fighter originally booked lost a decision.

Ray Mitchell, taking the place of Billy Drako, in the feature bout of twelve rounds with "Buzz Saw" Sweeney, lost out by his willingness to hold. This first change in the program elicited a chorus of "boos."

Wee Willie Woods, flyweight of Scotland, stepped in in place of Harry Murton and took a sound thrashing from young Dencio in the semifinal attraction.

However, Wee Willie made a fight of it, but had Dencio a little more punch would have ended hostilities in the early rounds.

SAMMY BRAUNSTEIN failed to put in an appearance, so Bobby Hayes, of Brooklyn, opposed Phil Raymond. Hayes took a trip to the canvas in the opening round and in going down his head struck the floor with a resounding thud, and the bout ended. This was to have been an eight-round affair.

Georgie Leslie, of Baltimore, subbing for Harry Groves, gave Eddie De Simons, of Fort Myer, a pasting for six rounds. Both boys mixed from bell to bell and at the end both judges and the referee voted for Leslie.

In the opening four rounder, Billy West dealt out a lacing to Jack Skinner for three rounds. West popped Skinner over the eye in the second round and opened a deep gash. Referee "Charlie" Short stopped the fight in favor of West after the third round.

Tilden Scores In Defense Of Title

Beats Neil Sullivan in 4 Sets Despite Injured Knee.

King Beats Harada, Chapin Eliminated by Hunter.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 14 (By A. P.).—Exhibiting the most erratic brand of tennis he has shown since becoming national champion six years ago, William T. Tilden limped to his second victory today in the title tournament at the Westside club.

"Big Bill," still favoring his strained knee, had as much difficulty overcoming one of his young proteges, Neil Sullivan, of Bethlehem, Pa., as he did yesterday in disposing of John Van Ryn, Princeton youth. The title holder, finding few of his strokes in consistent working order, dropped the first and was given a lively tussle before he gained control sufficiently to pull out the match at 4—6, 6—4, 6—2, 6—1.

Sullivan frequently outdrove the champion in their backcourt exchanges and might have given his famous rival more trouble had he employed the sort of drop shots and slices that Van Ryn yesterday used to such advantage. Tilden remained anchored on the base line almost from start to finish and gave every outward evidence of suffering from pain on the few sorties he made to the net.

With Tilden still off form and his bid for a seventh championship apparently fading, the other fifteen tournament survivors reached the third round in a series of hard-fought matches that produced numerous upsets. The most conspicuous of these eliminated Japan's two foremost threats.

TAKEICHI HARADA, Nipponese ace, was overpowered by the fiery attack of Dr. George King, of New York, in straight sets, 6—4, 8—6, 8—6, while Tsumio Tawara, another Japanese Davis cup performer, was put out by Arnold W. Jones, of Providence, R. I., in five sets, 2—6, 6—4, 2—6, 6—3, 6—1. By his victory Jones gained the right to oppose Tilden tomorrow.

Harada's downfall was the biggest upset so far. The Japanese has numbered "Little Bill" Johnston among his victims this year and was the star of the Davis cup interzone finals, defeated both Rene La Coste and Henri Cochet. Weak-

Washington Golfers Paired; Atlantan Heavy Favorite.

By HENRY LITCHFIELD WEST.

SHORT HILLS, N. J., Sept. 14. If there is anything in the old tradition that a golfer who wins the medal for low score in the qualification round can not win the tournament, then Robert T. Jones, jr., has laid out for himself a hard row to hoe. He finished his two rounds of eighteen holes this afternoon with a total of 143 strokes, a qualification score only excelled once in the history of American golf, and that was when D. Clarke Corkran played 36 holes at Merion two years ago in 142.

Jones led the field by four strokes, Rudy Knepper forging into second place with a total of 147 by reason of a fine 70 which he scored in his round today. Knepper should have had a 69, for he missed a putt on the home green which was not over 18 inches in length.

If any golfer should be curious enough to know why Jones could play in 70 yesterday and be three strokes worse with a 73 today the answer can be easily given. Yesterday he did not miss a shot and today he topped his ball on the third hole with an iron.

HE lost another stroke today when he failed to make a putt that was certainly not more than 10 inches from the cup, and finally he had a penalty shot on the eighteenth hole, when his drive carried into the water hazard, although he holed out in two putts for a par 5.

Playing at the peak of his game with a regularity that is mechanical, he can look forward to the contests of tomorrow with untroubled soul. In the morning he plays against Richard A. Jones, jr., and in the afternoon either against William M. Reekie, of Mont Clair or Paul Haviland, of Bridgeport, Conn., the former past his prime as a golfer and the latter a youngster who is playing in a national tournament for the first time in his life.

It would be a miracle if Jones' opponents were not walked home tomorrow from a green some distance from the clubhouse. In the 36-hole matches which will follow Jones has little to fear, although his bracket contains the names of

COLLYER SUPPORTS WATER FLAG AT HAWTHORNE

Expert Likes Cup Bearer In Fifth

Gay Hallie Nominated to Beat The Wire and Vim Ginger.

Barberry Given Call in Sixth Race at Brooklyn.

By BERT E. COLLYER.

WATER FLAG.

Go visit the common enemy and plant a couple megs on this mare's beezer. Commission planted here following a workout of a mile in 1:44 the other morning. Goes in the sixth at Hawthorne, and let your conscience be your guide.

SETH'S ALIBI and PRINCE TII TII for what is left.

The boys who nurse the split-second watches say HENRY SOMMERS, in the third spasm, is the fastest thing at the Cicero course. Has been camped there for the past fortnight getting ready for this race.

GAY HALLIE figures slightly best over VIM GINGER and THE WIRE in the day's opener.

MYRA M. has the call in the second. RASULI may be the troublesome one here.

IRON MASK'S last effort was good enough to give him the edge over FABIAN in the fourth.

CUP BEARER kept the wires hot during the night. Stable expects to mop up here. ARABIAN has a chance to spill the beans.

The Toronto cup is the piece de resistance for the opening day at Woodbine. Look out for the Seagram ACROBAT-EDISTO, coupled with BEAU OF THE WEST, a recent winner.

BOU CHAIB was shipped over from New York for this race and he may turn the trick. HARRY BAKER'S last effort was good enough to give him a look-in.

SARATOGA MAJE may fool the wise ones in the sixth. HARASS, the Seagram beauty, ran a fair race and may be good enough to pack the weight successfully.

The good word from Brooklyn is to string with BARBERRY in the sixth. Another hot one from the same source is MILL BOY, in the seventh.

CINCINNATI IN LEAD AFTER BEATING ROBINS

throw past Pipp, and scored on O'Neill's single.

THE Reds went into the lead again in the third on singles by Walker and Dressen and a wild pitch, and sewed up the game in the sixth with two runs, resulting from singles by Critz, Hargrave and Ford, and a sacrifice fly.

Critz started his brilliant work in the first inning, scooping up a slow roller off Herman's bat, which got past Mays. He tore in, swept the ball up with his gloved hand and got it to Pipp in time to retire the batter, preventing a Brooklyn score.

NATS TO OPEN IN DETROIT TODAY

Murray and Johnson to Take Mound in Double-Header.

er they get in the money at all depends upon their success in the seven-game set which starts with double-headers both tomorrow and Thursday.

Even the lion's share of victories here may not help them a whole lot, this partially depending upon how Cleveland and Philadelphia fare with the Yankees and Browns, respectively.

For the two games tomorrow Skipper Harris expects to use Walter Johnson and George Murray. "Barney" complained in Cleveland last night of having a slightly ailing wing due to the cold and damp weather which the Nationals ran into in the fifth city, but hopes that today's rest and one of Trainer Martin's famous treatments will have him O. K. when he takes the hill.

Pitcher Pat Loftus was waiting for the Harrismen when they arrived here this morning. The New Haven rookie is a large-sized edition of Danny Taylor in looks and gives the impression of being able to stand a lot of work. Although he is big and heavy his weight is evenly divided and he is not what might be called fat.

MOST of the Nats ate breakfast and then hustled to bed, when they arrived here, dozing all morning. The train ride was rougher than a five-day growth of whiskers, and all vowed that they "never slept a wink," although the writer heard several snores during the night.

The only exception was Nick Altrock, who hustled into his knickers and hot-footed it to one of the country clubs where he played two full rounds of "cow pasture pool."

Walter Johnson is not the only Washington flinger who picked up a slight cold in his wing at Cleveland, for Lefty Thomas and Bill Morrell also claim that their flippers have a few kinks in them which they hope to work out tomorrow.

Bump Hadley is the only other flinger due to join the Nats this season unless Joe Carroll suddenly changes his mind. Hadley is due to report in time for the next series at St. Louis. No recent word has been received from the delinquent Little Rock moundsman.

ARLINGTON MEETS.

The football players of the Arlington A. A. will meet and practice tonight at 7 o'clock.

That Final Touch

When you light a Lucky Strike, you get more than the usual enjoyment which comes from an extra-fine cigarette.

You get the choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and perfectly blended—and something more.

The extra goodness of Lucky Strikes is due to toasting—a costly extra process.

Lucky Strikes offer you:

1. Finer Flavor. Toasting for 45 minutes develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos.
2. Smoothness. Toasting for 45 minutes removes all "bite" and harshness, hence never any throat irritation.
3. Freshness. Then the tobacco is suddenly chilled. This seals the flavor in and insures constant freshness.

If judged only by comparison of tobaccos, Lucky Strikes would be the best on the market. But the extra process is a final touch, making Luckies far superior.

"It's toasted"

That's Why Luckies Taste So Good

GEORGETOWN BACKFIELD ADEPT AT PASSING GAME

G. U. Develops Overhead Attack

Gormley and Donovan Throw Oval With Accuracy.

Maroney Brilliant at Receiving; Hanlon Injures Knee.

By JACK ESPEY.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Sept. 14.—For the first time since the training camp was opened, the Georgetown university football squad today was given an intensive drill on forward passing, which attack gained many yards for the Blue and Gray last year.

For two hours of the afternoon session the backs, ends and centers practiced on nearly a score of plays recently developed by Head Coach Little and his staff of assistants. Many of the plays appeared to be most deceptive, and if they are put through in the coming games as they were in practice, Georgetown should prove exceedingly dangerous whenever it goes to the overhead method on offense.

Several nifty passers showed up during the workout, the most prominent of whom were George Donovan and Bob Gormley, halfback and quarterback, respectively.

DONOVAN was firing the leather fast and true, as the receiver galloped into the open, while he displayed exceptional smoothness to his delivery.

Coach Little quite often handed him a word of praise which meant a lot inasmuch as Little is not a coach of the sugar-tongued variety.

Donovan's passing added weight to the argument that he is making for a variety berth and if he continues exhibiting the high-class brand of football which has featured his work of the past week he may yet crowd out one of the other backs who were considered sure bets in their positions.

On a fake end run play Gormley got off some pretty heaves into the arms of the receivers, while in receiving himself he had no equal and many times snagged the ball just as it appeared to be shooting beyond his grasp.

Another strong passer was uncovered in Tip Maroney the lanky end, although he was not used on the throwing end of the plays.

HE let loose before the workout started with a number of passes which traveled 50 and 60 yards and were low. To use a baseball term, he was throwing "strikes from the outfield."

The casualty list was increased to eight players and one coach today when Brendan Hanlon, substitute center, and Herb Kopf, end coach, were forced out of action.

Hanlon suffered a dislocated knee that required hospital treatment while Kopf was seized with a stomach disorder. The former will be out for two weeks at least.

CUP REGATTA BOATS COST MILLION

Craft to Show Here Friday Represent Huge Fortune.

A million-dollar sport show will be presented, free of charge, for Washington's citizens and visitors Friday and Saturday, when the President's cup powerboat regatta is held on the Potomac.

It was estimated last night by officials of the Corinthian Yacht club, under the auspices of which the regatta will be staged, that the total cost of the boats entered would approach the million mark, and that the cost of shipping the craft here, pay for their mechanics, fuel and other expenses, would shoot the sum far above that figure.

"If we were starting from scratch, with all the boats to be built," said Commodore Conrad C. Smith, of the Corinthian Yacht club, "it would cost a staggering amount of money to stage this regatta."

THE most expensive craft entered is the Cigarette IV, owned by L. Gordon Hamersley. It cost $65,000. This boat, which will compete for the President's cup, is made of a metal called duralumin, said to be almost as light as aluminum, and almost as strong as steel.

Gar Wood's two boats that will race the French challenger, the Excelsiore France, for international honors and attempt to set a world record in a special time trial, the Miss America IV and V, cost together approximately $100,000.

With the exception of a few details, plans for the regatta are complete. The course will be laid out today in the Georgetown channel. It will extend from the railroad bridge to Hains point, making the speedway an excellent vantage point. The course will be 1½ miles long, with the turning buoys placed in such position as to create a 3-mile lap.

Peck Memorial Club Plans For Basketball

The Peck Memorial club, prominent in local basketball circles, plans an early start this season. Frank Athey, business manager of the Georgetowners, announced that a meeting will be held shortly and that practice will get underway about the middle of October.

One of the largest squads ever to try out for the Peckmen will report when the initial practice is called. In addition to Johnston McAuley, Buddy Hart, Herbert Tucker, Frank Athey, Jack Talbert, Buck Turner, Sam Corcoran, Edward Saul and Norman Saul, members of last year's quintet, there will be at least ten newcomers seeking positions on the team.

The Sportswoman

By DOROTHY E. GREENE

GARFIELD playground, represented by Teresa Breen and Alice Brown, won the girls' tennis title of the municipal playgrounds yesterday, when Bertha Ryan and Emily Harrington, of Bloomingdale, were defeated, 6—3, 6—4.

Although taking straight sets, the Garfield girls did not have an easy time in winning the title. In the first set the games stood three-all at one time, and it required all the cunning that the winners possessed to get the verdict.

Misses Breen and Brown played a backcourt game almost entirely, the only exception being during a few games in the second set, when Miss Brown did some effective volleying from the net. The Bloomingdale girls played courageously throughout the match, not once indicating a willingness to let up.

The winners were presented with gold medals by Mrs. Susie Root Rhodes, supervisor of playgrounds, and boxes of candy were presented to the runners-up by Miss Maude N. Parker, director of girls' activities, who also refereed the games.

SWIMMERS PASS TESTS.

A large group of girls passed the American Red Cross life saving corps swimmers' and beginners' tests during their stay at Camp Matoaka, St. Leonards, Md. Miss Betty Hartshorn received the highest average in the group which won the swimmers' badges, establishing almost a perfect average in the 100-yard swim, the back stroke and float, the surface dive and recovery of objects, the plain front dive and racing start.

Other girls who will receive their swimmers' buttons are: Nancy Williamson, Helen Kirtland, Virginia Plugge, Dorothy Hedges, Charlotte Mills, Olivia Nixon, Margaret Arnold and Sara Field.

TWO D. C. GOLFERS QUALIFY; MATCH PLAY STARTS TODAY

Francis Ouimet, "Chick" Evans Roland Mackenzie and Eustace Story, of England.

The latter, however, has been playing a game which promises Bobby Jones a real battle. Storey's card today was 73, and he would like nothing better than to score a victory over the golfer who won the British open.

IT is always the case that at the close of a qualifying round the list of qualifiers contains names more or less unknown to the golfing world, while in the discard are many who were confidently expected to find themselves within the charmed circle.

This event is no exception. Maurice McCarthy, a student at Georgetown university, whose father is a golf professional at the Flatbush club, Long island; W. L. Massingwill, who remarked that if he qualified the entire population of Fort Worth, Tex., would burst out laughing; Paul Haviland, who has partly graduated in long trousers; Jack Westland, who is still a student out on the Pacific coast, and Eugene Homans, the junior champion of New Jersey, are only a few of those who suddenly find themselves on the roll of fame.

On the other hand, such well-known golfers as John G. Anderson, who recently won the French open; Donald Carrick, former Canadian champion; George Hackl, Jimmie Manion, Davey Herron, Clarence Wolf and a host of others are tonight packing up their grips for a journey home.

The list of qualifiers contains the names of two Washington golfers—Roland R. Mackenzie and Miller B. Stevinson. Mackenzie has, of course, qualified before at Merion and Oakmont, but Stevinson is basking in the sunlight for the first time.

Mackenzie made his calling and election sure by winning with a card of 75 today, which gave him a total of 156. His score was all the more remarkable because he started with a 6 on the first hole, taking four strokes from off the edge of the green.

THREE times he had to fight his way out of bunkers and on the eleventh green he took three putts. He was, however, putting finely, running down an 8-footer on the fourth green for a birdie 2 and holing another that was fully 30-feet on the tenth.

On the eighteenth 486 yards, he hit the cup from the edge of the green for an eagle 3 and then tapped the ball into the hole for a birdie 4.

Stevinson, on the other hand, after a fine round of 77, was kept for hours on the ragged edge of uncertainty. His total was 163, and up to 3 o'clock in the afternoon it looked as if he was safely in the qualified list.

Then player after player came in with low scores, until finally, with 31 contestants at 163 and under, Jack Westland, of Portland, Ore., threw a monkey wrench into the works by compelling a playoff among the six competitors whose aggregate score was 163.

Stevinson walked out on the first tee, accompanied by Eddie Held, of St. Louis; W. L. Massingill, Fort Worth; Francis Ouimet, Boston; Watts Gunn, Atlanta, and Frank W. Dyer, Montclair. He made a fine drive down the center of the fairway, but sliced his second shot into a trap, from which he was barely out in 3, finally holing out in 6.

It looked as if he had thrown his chances away, but Dyer, who had topped his drive, also took a 6. On the second hole, Stevinson was on the green with his second shot, while Dyer drove into the rough, Stevinson easily winning, 4 to 5.

IT is irony of fate, however, that tomorrow morning Stevinson must play against his fellow club member, Roland Mackenzie, but no matter how this struggle may result, Stevinson is happy enough.

George J. Voigt, of Bannockburn, failed to make the grade. He had 84 strokes behind him when he played his first tee shot this morning and although he started with three pars he was unable to keep up the good work.

A trapped tee shot on the short fourth and two 3-putt greens ran the total of his card for the first nine up to 40 and his incoming journey, marked by three 6s gave him a total of 82 for the eighteen holes, or an aggregate of 166 for the two rounds, just three strokes too many.

The first six on the inward nine was due to a hooked tee drive into a trap on the eleventh hole, with another trap experience on the seventeenth and three putts on the fifteenth and eighteenth greens. "I have no apologies to make," he said, "for I have played good golf. I made a mistake on the fifteenth hole yesterday when I tried to get distance out of a trap instead of playing safely, and I have had too many 3-putt greens, but I have hit my tee shots and my irons and I am satisfied with the showing I have made in my first tournament."

Voigt's card follows:

Out 5 4 4 5 5 4 5 4 4—40
In 5 6 4 4 4 5 4 6 6—42—82

Al Houghton, Manor; S. M. Newton, Burning Tree, and Page Hufty, Congressional, were hopelessly out the running. Houghton, who had an 85 yesterday, played today in 86, with six three-putt and one four-putt greens. He finished with a total of 171 and sorrowfully reckoned that if he had saved the fifteen strokes which he wasted yesterday and today on the putting greens, he would have been sitting on the top of the world.

In addition to his multiplicity of putts, he was wrecked this afternoon on the long seventeenth hole when, after playing out of two traps, he capped the climax with four putts for a total of nine strokes. Houghton's card:

Out 6 5 6 3 4 4 5 4 4—41
In 4 5 5 5 4 6 4 6 6—45—86

Newton was in better form today than yesterday, but could not do better than 88, which gave him a complete card of 172. He encountered trouble on the sixth and eighth holes, which added 7s to his score and nearly all the holes were in one or more strokes over par.

Page Hufty was the last of the line of the Washington contestants, finishing with 178. He started with a par 5 on the first hole, but after he had holed out oon the second hole, due to an out-of-bounds shot, he knew that his chances to qualify after the 91, which was his score yesterday, had gone glimmering. He was out in 43 and came home in 44, playing into traps on three holes in succession on his inward journey.

Billy Mamakos Wins Over Sam Hook in Feature Match.

SURVIVORS in the municipal playground department's boys' tennis tournament narrowed down to seven yesterday when three playground representatives were eliminated. Arthur Carnduff, of Mitchell park, defeated David Legum, of Columbia road, 6—3, 6—4; Billy Mamakos, of Garfield, defeated Sam Hook, of Rosedale, 7—5, 3—6 and 6—3, and Jimmy Lowe, of Twin Oaks, defeated Russell Peters, of Happy Hollow, 6—1, 6—0.

The brand of play the second day of the tournament was far superior to that of the first. The feature of yesterday's matches being the victory of Billy Mamakos over Sam Hook.

AFTER a bitter struggle, Mamakes took the first match, 7 to 5, but Hook rallied in the second set and defeated his opponent, 6 to 3. In the final set Mamakes' placements were too puzzling for Hook and the former triumphed, 6 to 3.

Matches for today are: Georgetown vs. Twin Oaks, on the Plaza courts, and Bloomingdale vs. John Burroughs, on Bloomingdale. The former match will be played at 10:30 o'clock and the latter at 3:30. The original schedule called for Mitchell Park to play again today, but due to the fact that the match at Bloomingdale was postponed, the Mitchell Park representative will remain idle until tomorrow.

Beauty and You

By VIOLA PARIS

THE SHINING ART OF LOOKING CLEAN

BEATRICE has fewer clothes than almost any one I know, but they are always immaculate. They never seem to be crusted, spotted, or weary looking. When she wears pleated frills, you would think that they had just come from the very best French laundress. Her hair isn't especially beautiful, but it shines with health and vitality. Her finger-nails seem to denote that she has always just had a manicure. Her face, even, looks cleaner than the faces of other people. In short, from head to foot she seems to me to exemplify the shining art of cleanliness more than any one else I know.

How does she do it? By everlasting washing—merely that. True, she may use a cleansing fluid on her face rather than soap and water, though I don't think so. True, too, she has a special knack with a little rag and a little bottle with which she chases away the spots that occasionally appear on some strategic one of her few frocks. But the idea is the same—she is finely fastidiously, perfectly clean all over and it gives her a special sort of charm.

I've seen many a pretty young girl who didn't have this. Who hasn't witnessed the sight of dirty, uncared for nails on a hand that issued from a dress that was passably smart, as its owner swayed from a strap in the street car or a subway train? Who hasn't seen a woman with plenty of money who seemed to have economized on laundry—or a business woman who didn't shampoo her hair frequently enough—or a college girl whose gloves were never clean? And does the world think quite as much of these people as it would if they were like Beatrice, brave in her few immaculate dresses?

STOCK PRICES REBOUND; MOST GROUPS ADVANCE

Motors, Steel and American Smelters Lead Broad Swing Upward.

ALL RAILS ARE STRONG

Special to The Washington Post.

New York, Sept. 14.—The stock market rebounded today after its several days of sagging values and virtually every group was carried forward in the most impressive advance since Labor day. Plainly the sustained sinking spell had produced an oversold condition and the move today was sufficiently strong to obscure interest in the other financial markets, most of which were inactive.

The turnover was only moderately large, showing an increase of only 25,000 shares over that of the preceding session and falling short of 1,450,000 shares, but the activity was well distributed and the whole market's strength was very definite and maintained throughout the day and most active issues closed at or near the top. In scores of instances gains ranged from 2 to 6 points or more.

The advance doubtless was encouraged to some extent by the continuance of call money at 5 per cent after its scarcity at that rate Monday afternoon. In some quarters it was believed income-tax payments due tomorrow might drain the market so heavily as to force a higher rate today, but as the day wore on and the rate held steady there was less obvious nervousness over the credit situation. The call market was, if anything, a little easier. Only $12,000,000 worth of loans were called by the banks, as against $20,000,000 Monday.

Further encouragement was derived by buyers from the strong demand for investment securities that was manifested not only in the huge over-subscription for the government notes, but in the immediate absorption of the government of Finland bonds. Consequently it was only natural that the high grade dividend paying shares, such as General Motors, United States Steel and American Smelters should have been most prominent in the inception of the rise.

However, as soon as the move was well under way, and the reaction that had wiped out every other rally of any size in the past week failed to develop, practically the entire list—the motors, the rails, the equipments, the utilities, the tobaccos and the amusement stocks—swung in behind the leaders. In the first and last hour short covering provided a most effective accelerating influence.

All the carrier shares were strong, although the Southern issues were slightly favored in the buying. Gains of 2¾ in New York Central, 2⅝ in Atchison, 4⅝ in Pere Marquette and 4⅝ in Atlantic Coast Line were outstanding in the railroad group.

The oils moved upward but their rise seemed to be due rather to the tone of the whole market than to the production report published today, the first in nine weeks to show a decrease.

General Motors finished at the day's best price, 6½ points net higher, and Du Pont kept pace, closing 6⅝ up, but improvement in most of the automobile shares was only moderate. Independent steels registered good gains in most instances and United States Steel common was 1⅝ above Monday's close at the end of trading. American Smelting's net rise was 2⅞.

Pullman led the equipments, but reacted near the close for all but a minor fraction of its advance. Warner Brothers Pictures led a broad and active advance in amusement shares and closed 2½ points net higher despite a last-hour drop of 3⅜ under profit-taking selling. Fox Film A gained 6¼, Famous Players 2⅝, Pathe Exchange A 3½, and so on. Public Service of New Jersey headed the utilities. United Railway Investment preferred sold 9 points higher on a single transaction.

Tobacco Products closed 3¼ up, and other noteworthy gains included National Tea, 5 points; Postum Cereal, 3; Kinney, 4¾; Butterick, 3¾; United States Cast Iron Pipe, 2¾, and Texas Gulf Sulphur, 2½.

An advance in yen to the highest level since the great earthquake in 1923 featured foreign exchange dealings. French and Belgian francs and lire improved slightly and pesetas lost 2 points. Other rates were steady.

NEW YORK COTTON.

New York, Sept. 15 (By A. P.).—After selling up to 17.23 during today's early trading on tropical storm apprehensions, the cotton market broke to 16.93 for December contracts under renewed liquidation, combined with local and Southern selling. This made a decline of 21 points from yesterday's closing quotations and new low ground for the movement. Closing prices were at the lowest figures of the day, with the market easy at net declines of 20 to 22 points.

The opening was steady at an advance of 1 point to a decline of 2 points. After a little irregularity, active positions sold about 9 to 12 points net higher on trade buying and covering. The latter was stimulated by early reports that storm warnings had been issued for the West Gulf coast, and for a time the market showed considerable anxiety over the situation in that respect. Later advices, however, were reassuring, while weather conditions otherwise were considered very favorable, and the failure of the early storm reports to bring in more general buying, evidently encouraged bearish sentiment.

There also may have been some selling in expectation of a fairly favorable weekly review by the weather bureau tomorrow, and the market showed increasing weakness in late trading when December and all later deliveries made new low ground for the movement. Stop orders were uncovered on the decline, giving the market rather an unsettled appearance late in the afternoon when October broke to 16.75 and January to 17.00. The general feeling here appeared to be that the storm reported central over Cuba this morning would move out to sea instead of into the gulf, and while there were rumors of another disturbance near St. Kitts, they failed to make much impression on sentiment.

The report of the census bureau showing domestic consumption of 500,652 bales for August, against 448,605 last year, was without any apparent effect on the market.

Port receipts today, 79,763. United States port stocks, 798,439. Exports today, 24,502, making 532,301 so far this season.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 14 (By the Associated Press).—Aggressive buying by local and Eastern shorts, combined with impressive strength in Winnipeg, gave wheat values a decided turn upward today. Despite a slight reaction just before the close when some early buyers turned to the selling side, the market closed strong at a net gain of 1⅞ to 3c. Corn finished ⅜c down to ⅜c up. Oats gained ¼ to ⅞c and provisions were 5c lower to 2½c higher.

Most of the wheat news was of a bullish character. Rains and some snow were reported in the Canadian northwest and there were numerous reports indicating that threshing was being delayed because of the weather. It was pointed out that with large quantities of wheat sold for shipment the delay in the movement may become serious if the wet weather continues.

DISTRICT HEADS ACT TO REMOVE INQUIRY TO LOCAL BUILDING

Would Place Dougherty's Private Office at Disposal of House Investigators.

OFFER MAJ. COVELL AS COMMITTEE AID

Proposal, Said to Have Originated With Bill, Is Sent to Zihlman.

The District commissioners yesterday made overtures to the subcommittee of the House, which is to investigate the local government, to make the District building, instead of the Capitol, the scene of its inquiry.

Commissioner Proctor L. Dougherty's private office, sumptously furnished and light, with a large anteroom, has been placed at the disposal of the representatives and the services of Maj. W. E. R. Covell, assistant to the engineer commissioner, have been offered to aid in rounding up information from the District departments.

The proposal is said to have originated with Lieut. Col. J. Franklin Bell, engineer commissioner, who drew up the following letter signed by Cuno H. Rudolph, president of the District board of commissioners, and which was sent Representative Frederick N. Zihlman, chairman of the House district committee:

Offer Covell's Services.

"The commissioners suggest that the subcommittee of the District committee, which is to assemble to make a study of District affairs, make their headquarters in the District building, and we offer the use of a room which we believe will serve the purposes of the committee.

"We will be very glad to have Maj. W. E. R. Covell act as aid to the committee in obtaining information from the various departments and for other purposes.

"It is believed the most advantageous way for the committee to obtain information will be for the members to visit the various offices and obtain information directly from the employes. Maj. Covell will be able to make all the necessary arrangements, as well as valuable suggestions. We will appreciate it if you will bring this to the attention of the subcommittee."

Get More Information.

"The representatives can get as much information about the District down here in a week as we can carry to them at the Capitol in a year," Col. Bell said. "We have agreed if they accept our proposal, to give them Commissioner Dougherty's room.

"It is our way in the army, if we want to investigate anything, to go right where it is. I believe it is a good way. It is the army way, also, to provide investigators with an aid. There could be none better than Maj. Covell."

Daughters Benefit Under Mother's Will

Amo Leona McKee and Louise Virginia McKee, daughters of the late Amo Sanford McKee, who died June 29 last, are left the bulk of their mother's property, under the terms of the will filed for probate yesterday. The will leaves a house, lot and contents at Arundel-on-the-Bay, Md., and four lots in Tuscon, Arizona, to Miss Amo Leona McKee, while the other daughter is left a house, lot and personal effects, and four lots.

Fred McKee, husband, is left three lots in this city, in trust, to sell and convey and distribute the proceeds in accordance with an agreement referred to in the will. The residue of the estate is to go to the daughters.

Wife, Who Is Minor, Files Divorce Suit

Alleging that she is "mentally subnormal and susceptible to the influence of others," Helen M. Blackstone, 2448 Ninth street northwest, yesterday filed suit in the District Supreme court for a limited divorce and alimony against Oscar W. Blackstone, an employe of the city postoffice. Through her attorney, Jean M. Boardman, Mrs. Blackstone charges desertion, cruelty and inadequate support.

Mrs. Loretta A. Lyons, who appears for her minor daughter, claims that Blackstone persuaded her daughter to marry him when her daughter was but 14 years old and that when Blackstone applied for a marriage license, April 12, 1922, he misrepresented her age as 19.

Lopez Gives Recital On Hecht Store Roof

Commissioners Fail to Answer Protest of Lieut. Van Winkle's Aids.

DENY M'DUFFIE PENSION

The District commissioners yesterday considered the appeal of Policewomen Gladys Black and Pearl Proctor from the decision of the police trial board, which fined them $25 each for false arrest in having mistaken an innocent bystander for an escaped inmate of the District Training School for Girls.

Lieut. Mina Van Winkle, commanding officer of the woman's bureau of the police department, appeared before the commissioners. She was outspoken in her defense of her two aids. If the commissioners reached a decision on the appeal they neglected to say anything about it and all officials who could be reached with inquiries were reticent.

The question of allowing retirement payments for support of the wife and children of Police Private Paul A. McDuffie was reconsidered. McDuffie is at present an inmate of St. Elizabeths hospital. Some weeks ago the commissioners retired him without pension, on the ground that his mental incapacity for work was not contracted in the line of duty. Police surgeons say it was caused by shell shock in the war.

Private McDuffie has been unable to obtain allowances from the veterans' bureau, because they hold that he was certified as of sound mind and body when he was employed by the police department.

The commissioners yesterday again refused to allow half-pay for support of his wife and children, as they would if he had not been to war, but voted to urge the veterans' bureau to make provision for his dependents.

DAMAGES OF $422,986 DEMANDED IN ACTION

Robert Lloyd Sues Company of Which Rear Admiral Kimball Is President.

A suit to recover $422,986 for alleged breach of contract was filed yesterday in the District Supreme court by Robert Lloyd, 502 Denrike building, against A. S. Jordy and the Sponsel Universal Joint Co., Inc., with offices in the Investment building. Attorneys Philip W. Austin and Abner Siegel appear for the plaintiff.

Rear Admiral W. W. Kimball, U. S. N., is president of the corporation. Other officers are Col. E. W. Creecy, M. P. Bazzuro, president of the Bazzuro Engineering Co.; D. M. Kindleberger, of the Riggs National Bank; Ulric Bell, president of the National Press club, and Rear Admiral G. Blocklinger, U. S. N.

The declaration alleges that in April, 1926, Lloyd entered into an oral agreement with the defendants to become sales manager for the disposal of certain stock and that he did enter on such employment, started to perform the contract and did perform his part of the contract until June 12, 1926, when the plaintiff alleges he was discharged. Lloyd, through his attorneys, declares he was to be employed on a salary and commission and, as a result of the discharge, says that he has been damaged.

PLANNING COMMITTEE RULES ON STREETS

Opposes Narrowing Eighth Northeast, But Votes for Square Development.

The coordinating committee, National Capital park and planning commission, ruled yesterday against reducing the width of Eighth street northeast from Michigan avenue north from 100 to 90 feet, it being it sopinion that the highway plan should not be changed in this respect.

The committee indorsed a plan for developing property surrounding L'Enfant square at the intersection of Pennsylvania and Minnesota avenues on the Anacostia side, by having surrounding property built facing the square. While the square is not of sufficient size to permit construction of a roadway, building of sidewalks around the square will permit carrying out the project.

Certain changes in the highway plan in the area west of Sixteenth street and north of Piney Branch parkway were discussed. Those approved provide for relocation of Randolph terrace and Randolph street to form a better northern boundary for Piney Branch parkway and the continuation of Upshur street west from Sixteenth street direct to the parkway, instead of being cut off at Argyle terrace. The market subcommittee of the coordinating committee will hold another meeting tomorrow.

District Officials Refuse to Approve Regulations After Asking for Aid.

OLD SANITARY RULES TO REMAIN IN EFFECT

Believe Existing State Better, Since Refrigeration Clause Was Not Enforced.

The District commissioners yesterday took issue with Dr. William C. Fowler, health officer, on the use of fans by meat dealers to protect meat from insects and dust. They refused to adopt his proposed code to regulate display of foods for sale, notwithstanding the fact he had prepared it at their direction. The old regulations will continue.

Daniel E. Garges, secretary of the board of commissioners, was instructed to state to Dr. Fowler, in the communication officially apprising him of the fate of his regulations, that the commissioners will support him in any steps he may take to protect public health in controlling display of foodstuffs under the old rules.

The present rule was adopted several months ago. It contains stringent rules, among them one requiring perishable foods to be shown in refrigerated glass cases.

Asked New Regulations.

Meat dealers opposed it at the time it was adopted, saying it burdened them with expensive equipment. They objected to its enforcement again in early summer and at that time Dr. Fowler said he was not enforcing the refrigeration clause and was willing to eliminate it.

The commissioners instructed him to study similar regulations in other cities and to submit modified regulations. This he did, but dissenting from the view of other cities that fans were of value in protecting food. His new regulations left no loophole for fans.

Two of the commissioners are said to have studied meat displays of merchants and to have reached the conclusion fans were more useful than the health officer would admit.

They said they would rather have the existing regulation, since Dr. Fowler was not enforcing the refrigeration feature, than his new one, which requires goods to be wrapped or barricaded by glass, wood or fine mesh wire.

"Magical" Ice Cream Brought by Airplane

Frozen into a solid mold in imitation of a watermelon, a so-called "magic package" of ice cream arrived here yesterday by air mail from Philadelphia. The ice cream, completely encased in dry ice, was so compactly frozen as to resemble rock candy and failed to soften until exposed for about half an hour in a warm spot.

Abbott's Alderney Dairies, of Philadelphia, senders of the "magic package," explained that the ice cream was shipped here according to a new method of packing. This process preserves the original freshness of the confection and its purity, as well as its solidity, they claim. There were three layers of frozen cream in yesterday's package—pistache, strawberry and vanilla—in imitation of the colors of a watermelon.

In presence of an enthusiastic gallery that seethed with unsuppressed merriment, leaders in civic, political and professional circles took part in an exhilarating series of diversions, which included potato, egg, peanut and fat men's running races.

Competition was keen. Veteran business men whose wits had often clashed during office hours appeared surprised to find their erstwhile adversaries panting and puffing beside them in a thrilling potato race. The result was a medley of color, excitement, orderly confusion and real amusement.

Results of Races.

Warren C. Kendall, chairman of the outing committee, won a reward by qualifying as winner in the 50-yard running race for fat men. H. C. Cole was a close second in this event. Victors in the peanut race were H. Jack, first, and Mrs. Oscar A. C. Oehmler, second. Joseph Wells captured first honors in the egg race and M. Olshevsky second.

Golf and baseball claimed many adherents, while other members of the outing took advantage of the afternoon to sit in on quiet card games or to enjoy a swim in the country club's pool. The weather, although cloudy, was agreeable and lent itself readily to almost every form of indoor or outdoor recreation. At the close of a successful afternoon dinner was served. Dancing concluded the program.
